CHESS

LETTER

January 1948

The intrinsic value of full news coverage to any organization who is trying to get ahead need not be dwelled upon. All the readers of this publication should have the intelligence to realize the full significance and importance of it. In order to obtain it, however, there must be complete cooperation of all, and up to the present time said cooperation has not been forthcoming.

Any item of general interest, such as local tournaments, masterpieces, exhibitions, local simultaneous, and outside team matches will be most welcome, and are certainly most newsworthy. Horowitz, Koltanowski, Adams, and Bank have recently appeared in simultaneous exhibitions in this area, but no reports have been turned in. In each case the minimum news should include the number of players participating, and the names of the winners who win or draw.

Several local club tournaments have been held in the last few months, very few of which have been publicized. Each of these certainly should have been, and should have included the names of all the contestants with their scores. Items such as former champions, past records of leading players are always interesting.

Another important item is chess games. Thus far Arnold Guthrie and Leslie Coubrough are the only players who have voluntarily submitted over-the-board games, Cliff Moore, Guthrie, and the late Frank Autriest the only postal games. With the wealth of games available from league play we should be able to provide an excellent games section.

Certainly, the above conditions do not provide us with the healthy growth of chess we might otherwise have, if the various clubs and individuals would actively cooperate with a little additional effort.

SHEETS WINS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP AGAIN

Once again J. Leonard Sheets came through to win the Washington State Championship, a title he has held many times before. This time was a close call, however, as he finished in a tie for first with Charles Joachim, the Seattle City champion, at the end of the regular tournament, requiring a playoff.

Sheets won the match, but it was close! The score was two to one.

SEATTLE ELECTION

In the recent election of officers for the coming year, several well known chess notables are again making their appearance.

Heading the list is Edward L. Arnold, newly elected president. He is at present serving as president of the Washington State Chess Federation, and has just finished a term as tournament director for the Seattle club, a position he held many times before.

Burge B. Bickford, retiring as president, has been elected vice-president. A live wire always, he will always be of value in any capacity.

For the fourth consecutive time Ray LaFever has been re-elected to the post of secretary-treasurer, in which he has served faithfully in the. In addition, Ray has held the post of Director for the United States Chess Federation.

The two directors will be Frank Wanders, and Clarence Bushnell. In addition, Bushnell has been elected by the new officers to the important position of Tournament Director for the coming year. Always a hard worker, he should be well qualified.

Several times in the earlier tournament Joachim almost had the title within his grasp, but the chances eluded him. Sheets deserves full credit for his fine, uphill victory in the final showdown.

In tournaments to come their games will undoubtedly be the ones eagerly awaited by the chess fans.

We hope to have some of their games for publication in an early issue, perhaps with notes.

EVERETT CHESS CLUB

J. A. Naas, recent winner of the club's Speed tournament, is leading the annual Everett Chess Club tournament, with 20 wins and no losses! Neil F. Power, defending champion, is second with 10 wins and 2 losses.

The tournament is being conducted as a double round robin, with 22 entries! Tweeddale and Taro are not competing. Play #2 games! Check no!

GAMES IN SIMULTANEOUS EXHIBITION

Roger Ilsley won the only chess game against the checker and chess wizard in his two exhibitions at the Seattle Y.M.C.A. and Everett clubs

* Crain - Bollman game has not been adjudicated.

The name of the Queen Anne Chess Club is once again official, after being known for one month as the Wallingford Chess Club.

Complete match scores have not been turned in by both clubs competing. That is necessary to insure correct results. For instance the YMA did not report the match with Seattle, who were unable to name one of their opponents.

Three rounds of play are now behind us, which finds the Seattle team in first place, but only of Tacoma's having a bye. It seems quite likely that the title may be decided by the results of the sixth round when the two teams meet.

Seattle jumped into first place with the massacre of the helpless Olympia club, losing only one game in the entire match. It is doubtful if any team in the league could stand up against them at any time they are at, or near, full strength. Here it is:

SEATTLE	9	OLYMPIA	1
Wallock	2	Ayer	0
Weissenborn	2	Cerretelli	0
Bickford	2	Harneson	0
Arnold	1	Seely	0
Davidson, T.	2	Yocum	0

The strong Kitsap club took a firm grip on third place by winning from one of their dangerous rivals, the Skagit team. For the first time this year, the Mt Vernon men were near full strength, and they really made a battle of it.

KITSAP	5½	SKAGIT	4½
Nourse	1	Gnagoy	1
Danskins	½	Brandstrom	½
Rohberg	2	Gordon	0
Magerlaurth	1	Abbott	1
Graham	1	Hazen	1

University bounced back from its trimming from Tacoma, and thoroughly trounced Everett in its comeback as a contender for one of the first division spots. It was Everett's second loss in succession, both by high scores.

UNIVERSITY	7½	EVERETT	2½
Bollman	1½	Taro	½
Dies	0	Bever	2
Ballantine	2	Husby	0
MacCinnis	2	Smith	0
AuYong	2	Holtzums	0

Queen Anne won its first league match of the season in a hard-fought with the last place YEA. Bob Hill was forced to lose his third game this year to Roger Hely on first board.

QUEEN ANNE	5½	YEA	4½
Noale	1	Hilsley	1
Bever	2	Seckman	0
Roberts	½	Allen	½
Rahleigh	0	Fry	2
Brewster	2	Torrance	0

Note: The 2nd round Seattle Mt match second half did not get finished until a certain time is reported.
