

Historical WASHINGTON CHESS LETTER recaps by Russell Miller

August 1948

Editor for August 1948 WASHINGTON CHESS LETTER was Lawrence Taro of Everett. It cost $1.00 per year to be a subscriber in 1948. The site of the 1948 Chess International (WA vs. BC match) was to be the Pavilion at Stanley Park in Vancouver BC on August 8th. There were 89 boards at the 1947 match. The Everett CC won a match with the Whidby Island CC 4.5-3.5. Olaf Ulvestad was reported to have won a rapid transit tournament held at the Marshall Chess Club in New York. Part II of "Fundamental Chess Strategy and Tactics" by Richard Allen appeared. Lawrence Taro was the top rated player on the postal chess list. The issue was 9 pages with the back page blank.