RATES:

Regular Subscription: $4 per year
Juniors (under 21): $3 per year

The subscription price includes a membership in the proper federation for one year. Family memberships are available in the WCF and OCF for 50¢ per year. After the first full membership is paid, each additional member of a household may join for 50¢. High school students and the above may join for $1 for one year, but this does not include a subscription to NORTHWEST CHESS.

Submissions to Northwest Chess must be typed, single space, within borders of 4½ inches. Plain white paper should be used; oil-impregnated "glossy" or "ripple" does not accept adhesive. Northwest Chess is printed by the photo-offset method with size reduction of 1/3. Layout size is 10" x 15". Crosstables that are wider than 4½ inches should be accompanied by a column article to fit alongside. (eg., crosstable 7", story 2½", always leave ½"). Crosstables should include player's name and rating, place of residence should be abbreviated. Annotated games and articles are welcome. Notation may be either English Descriptive or Algebraic. Photographs for publication should be sharp and printed on high contrast paper. Tournament announcements must include the name, date, site, entry fee, time control, registration time, prizes, and name and address of the organizer or director. They must also be typed within borders of 4½". Material must be mailed two to three days before the deadline. Until further notice:

THE EDITOR'S DESK

Well here we are back in the Northwest Chess Editors seat again. Last issue under my name was Feb. 1970. Many fine issues since then have been put out by Willie Skubi and Rob Hankinson. With a lot of help from Oregon and BC Editors and Northwest Chessplayers we will put out many more good issues. Oregon and BC Editors are going to send me their material already pasted down. They are allotted atleast 4 pages each month as is Sue Richardson who is doing tournament announcement pages. Postal pages by Richard Parson are two or three per month. These numbers are based on 24 page issues. I expect many months to have 32 pages like this month. This is your magazine please send in material, letters, comments, spare money! what have you. Lets see some chess club news. Would like to print a list of clubs every couple of months. Have received some complaints on the issues not being trimmed and stapled so we will go back to stapling with help from Yakima area people.

This column could well be called Washington Chess Federation Presidents Corner also for I hold that post also. I hope there will be a big turnout at BCCF Special General Meeting and that the membership will vote to have NWC as a part of BCCF membership dues not optional. Maybe BC players will feel this is meddling in their affairs but I feel that NWC deserves full support and tournament players should pay for what they get. The Oregon Chess Federation idea of requiring those who do not get NWC to pay and extra dollar to enter tournaments has merit. WCF does allow high school students and under to join WCF for only a dollar but adults have to pay the full rate. Only $.50 of membership fees paid goes to WCF part of treasury balance goes to support NWC. How come BCCF needs $2.50 per Adult when Oregon and Washington both only get $.50? I hope to be able to attend both the OCF meeting and BCCF meetings. Northwest Ratings were intended to be for players for the most part who were full members of each affiliate and to me that means getting NWC. How can players see their ratings, find out where they finished unless they get NWC. United States Chess Federation requires full membership to play in events rated by them. True their magazine is much better than ours but their ratings are later.

Speaking of ratings, Tim Kauppila, organizer of City of Seven Hills event held last December says that this event will not be rated by either USCF or NW. The report was not sent in promptly after the event and now no pairing cards or crosstable can be found. Anyone know where it is? Rating reports not being sent in or sent in late are one of the reasons USCF ratings seem so old. I believe NW TD's for the most part have been doing a good job of getting these reports in promptly. To toot my own horn a little, I try in events I run to fill out the rating report as the event goes along and mail it Monday after the event. Missed on Sunfair as it was a large event but you will note that it is rated in this issue. Got it in the mail on Tuesday after. Would be nice if you play in a tournament if you would ask the TD if you can help, one way would be to help on the rating report. On membership fee ask for a receipt or a membership card. Fee collectors please don't send cash in the mail send a check or money order so you will have a receipt from WCF that you did send in the money. Tournament Organizers I believe it would be a good idea, that when you send a tournament announcement in that you send along a selfaddressed postcard with postage on it that Sue Richardson can send back to you with notice that announcement has been received and maybe even which issues of NWC it will appear in.

ORGANIZERS:

Tournament announcements must be received at the above address at least eight weeks prior to the tournament to insure their appearing in Northwest Chess. Include name, date, site, entry fee, time control, registration time, prizes, and name and address of the organizer or director. They must be typed within borders of $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

Please send us the dates of your upcoming tournaments as soon as they are definite, so we can include them on the Tournament Schedule. This is a help to other organizers who want to schedule non-conflicting tournaments.

The Whidbey Island Chess Club, started in February, held its first tournament June 24 - 25. The tourney was open to all who had paid or were willing to pay $3.00 for a years membership in the club. No other memberships were required so the event cannot be NW rated. Maybe next year if we can arouse enough enthusiasm in the area.

The response of new players was gratifying. Seven of the ten entrants paid their dues at registration time to bring the club membership to seventeen.

For any who may be interested, the club meets at the U.S.O. Club, 1182 W. Pioneer Way, Oak Harbor on Monday nights 7 - 10 pm and Saturdays at 2 pm. Visitors are always welcome.

The players in the tournament seemed to be well matched with many hard fought games. Len Schalburg's second round game with Dick Dorwin was adjorned in a seemingly drawn position, but Len capitalized on a later inaccuracy to take the point, and the tourney.

WCF memberships were awarded to the top three places in addition to the 1st prize of a chess clock and 2d - 3d prizes of chess books.

Len Schalburg, who was transferred to Italy by the U.S. Navy shortly after the tourney, graciously donated his Northwest Chess subscription to the club library.

A quite successful 4th Annual Sunfair Open ended in victory for Jonathan Berry of Vancouver in Masters/Expert Section clear, Bruce Bailey of Seattle in Amateur on tie-break and Allen Sackett of Cheney in Novice Section clear.

96 total players plus $1,040.00 in cash prizes made event largest weekend event every in Northwest on both counts.

Berry's 4 1/2-1/2 scored netted him $200.00. It did not come easy. His third round game with James McCormick lasted nearly 100 moves and finished about 1:00am. McCormick lost when going for a win thinking he always had a draw in hand. Biyiasas had a most promising game against Berry but threw it away. The new international master and Canadian Champ Peter Biyiasas took home $125.00 for his efforts. James McCormick, Clark Harmon and Dennis Waterman were given $50.00 checks for their 3 1/2-1 1/2 scores. Had hoped to have the champions of all three Northwest areas take part but Mike Franett could not attend. Quite a strong event. Several players moved up in class wanting to play against stronger players but none of them were able to make much of a dent in the scores of the masters and experts. The ratings on cross-tables are USCF ratings except for those with *. This will be the next to last event that East-West Tournament Assoc will use USCF Ratings for pairings and prizes. After Portland Summer Open it will be the more accurate and up-to-date Northwest Ratings that will be used. We go to the trouble of making a report to send in to have NW Ratings done and pay for them and they are much more up to date so why not use them. I use to think pairing events with NW Ratings would have a bad effect on a players USCF rating but talking to our rating director has changed my mind.

Bruce Bailey by winning 4 in a row and then a last round draw was able to win top spot in Amateur (One player in M/E Section wanted to know how could it be an Amateur event or called that anyway with $125.00 as top prize.) Section, but only on tie-break. Going in to the last round Bailey was the only one with a perfect score. Leslie Vitanyi keep him from not sharing top money.

Lowery Short came in with a 4 1/2-1/2 score also which probably should have been 3 1/2 point less. He was upset about being paired with Ron Cotton his cousin in round 4. They wanted me to change the pairings after round had already started. That could not be done plus I am not able to later round in good faith with pairing system to adjust pairing because of something like that. So they agreed to a draw but did not turn in a score sheet. After a short time then they came up and told me they decided to play. Did I do right? In thinking back I don't believe I should have let them go ahead and play but then they had not even set up a board or signed a score sheet in the draw game. I was busy at the time they told me about the draw putting pairings on the wall chart. Next time when something like this happens I will stop everything and make the players sign a score sheet.

Larry Pratt played the swiss gambit, drew game one and won the rest to equal score of Bailey and Short. All three got $83.33. Bailey told me I should have given him the odd penny since he won on tie-break. The 4-1 scores of Gray, Vitanyi and Jangord got them $16.65 each.

A finish of note is that of Duane Polich, 3 1/2-1 1/2 is a fine score for a player rated 1367 USCF and 1572 NW. His NW Rating in this issue has jumped to 1781. Vitanyi who was held to a draw by Polich wanted to know how come Polich had such a low rating he sure did not play like it. Patti Allyn took home $25.00 for first woman. Her sister Pam won a chess clock for first under 13. This clock was donated as a prize in memory of Culver Williams by his widow. Mr. Williams played in Sun-Fair last year and won the clock as a prize. He died last October. Allen Sackett was able to give his wife a check for $75.00, she attend the tournament. He won first prize in Novice Section with a perfect 6-0 score. Dave McNelly was able to show his wife he won some money playing chess also for his 5-1 score was good for $50.00.

Ratings on Novice Section are Northwest Ratings.

Robert Strohm, 16 years of age and Jim Klingele only 11 won $22.50 each for their 4 1/2-1 1/2 scores. Klingele did not lost a game.

Event went very smoothly. Pairing up three sections with almost 100 total people was a chore but Kathy & I were able to get it done nearly on time for each round. The wall chart is quite a lot of work. Believe that players found the playing site to their liking except the lighting could be better. There was plenty of room and the price was right. A number took advantage of the hotels swimming pool. 1971 drew 78 players and we hope 1973 will draw 150. By Russell W. Miller

Oregon Chess NEWS

This Month, thanks to new editor Rusty Miller, the Oregon Editor will be allowed to paste up the Oregon news. In the past the Oregon Material went to the main editor, and we were at his mercy as to what would be printed. Now our fate is in our own hands. If you send Material to me, you have a good chance of getting it printed. Now is the time to share your chess experiences with your fellow Oregonians. BOB LARRANCE

Byron Perala of Portland topped the Master/Expert section of the Portland Independance Day Open. His was a tie-break victory when his 3-1 score was equaled by Eugene Warner of Kennewick. They won $30 each. They both scored victories over Clark Harmon, Oregon Champion, and drew with each other and also drew with Bill Kiplinger, who drew all four games he played. This event was another experimental event of East-West Tournament Association. The turnout was not good, but I believe the players who took part like the 2 games per day and 40/2 time control. They would have liked to have more prizes.

Ron Cotton reeled off 4 straight wins and then a 5th round draw with Greg Reese to take home 1st prize in the Reserve Section. He received $100. Jack Love, Gregory Reese, Karl Granat, William Ballard, Michael Emerson and Steve Thomas split 2nd, Class B and C money equally for $23.33 each. 1st D prize of $40 was awarded to Roy Sneath. E and unrated prize went to Forest Ryan, David Akwai and Lany Brosehart.

Large crowds of shoppers at the Lloyd Center J.K. Gills store, many of whom probably didn't even know that the game being played was chess, watched Bill Kiplinger and Ron Cotton draw their game. Both ended with a score of 3-2 and an unbreakable tie. This was broken by a later sudden death playoff, with Kiplinger emerging victorious. He now is eligible for a place at the J.K. Gills Northwest Championship in September.

The Kiplinger-Cotton game was unusual in that it was the first draw due to mutual time pressure that this director has ever seen. Both players had fourteen moves left to make in approximately ten seconds on their clocks.

The very evenly matched field is apparent from the final scores; three players ended with 2½-2½ scores.

Clark Harmon won the Portland Invitational with a convincing 4½-½ score and earned the right to play in the J.K. Gills Northwest Championship coming up in September in Portland. Only Bill Ballard was able to even draw Harmon, by finding a perpetual check after almost six hours of play.

All players were from Portland, with the exception of Granat, who made the long trip in from Hillsboro to the downtown Portland J.K. Gills store.

Shortest game in the tournament follows. Apparently, we'd better watch out for Perala; he's been studying old swindles!

O.C.F. PROPOSED MOTIONS

Submitted by Lewis Richardson

Motion: The Oregon Chess Federation will sponsor tournaments anywhere in Oregon where there exists sufficient demand for chess tournaments and local and/or independent promoters are unable or unwilling to sponsor themselves or co-sponsor with the O.C.F. sufficient tournaments to meet this demand. Any member of the O.C.F. who feels that such a situation exists may submit a request to the executive committee that the O.C.F. hold a tournament. Such request must include the address of at least one possible site where the tournament could be held. Upon receiving the request, the executive committee will appoint an individual to set up details of the tournaments. Before any tournament can be sponsored by the O.C.F., it must be approved by a majority of the members of both the executive committee and the tournament committee.

Submitted by Mike Schemm

Motion: It shall be the policy of the Oregon Chess Federation to pay directors of O.C.F. sponsored tournaments both a director's fee and reasonable travel expenses. Such fees and expenses shall be decided upon in advance and will require majority approval of both the tournament committee and executive committee in advance of the tournament.

Proposed Amendment to the O.C.F. Constitution
Submitted by Lewis Richardson

(now reads) Article II: Purpose. The Federation shall develop, encourage, promote, and coordinate chess activities.

(proposed amend to read) Article II: Purpose. The Federation shall develop, encourage, promote, support, sponsor, and coordinate chess activities in Oregon.

Motion: The Federation will request written bids to hold the Oregon Open from any interested individuals or organizations. Said bids to be in the hands of the President by April 1. Said bids must include exact location, entry fee, guaranteed prize fund, and name of proposed tournament director. The Tournament Committee will meet in April and award the bid to party they feel will provide the best tournament.

The 7th annual OREGON YOUTH CHESS CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT sponsored by the U. S. National Bank of Oregon was held at the Eugene Hotel in Eugene on May 20 & 21, formerly called Oregon High School Individual Chess Championship.

JON MIEHE, senior at Corvallis High School, won the 1972 CHAMPIONSHIP and the U. S. National Bank $50 scholarship as well as the Championship Gold Medal and the 1st place High School Trophy, score 5-1-0. Mieke's only draw was in the 6th round with David Jones. This draw appeared to be by mutual agreement. David Jones, senior at Willamette High School of Eugene, won the U. S. National Bank $35 scholarship and the 2nd place High School Trophy, score 4-2-0. Four players tied for the 2nd and 3rd place scholarships. According to the rules this called for a four player round robin of five-minute-speed-chess. The four players got together and approached the tournament director with a proposition. Three of the players voted to give second place to David Jones without a contest and for the remaining three to divide the third place evenly between these three. The tournament director considered their vote as proper and it was done.

The three players thus tying for the 3rd place J. S. National Bank $25 scholarship were: Phil Irwin, a 9th grader from Highland Park Jr. High at Beaverton, score 5-0-1; Sam Tadlock, senior from Junction City High School, score 5-0-1; Mark Montchalin, junior at Rex Putnam High School in Portland, score 4-2-0. The I-D raised each of their shares to $10. Sam Tadlock also won the 3rd place High School Trophy. Phil Irwin won 1st place Junior High School Trophy. James Bricher, 9th grader from Lincoln Junior High School in Cottage Grove, won the 2nd place Junior High Trophy, score 3-2-1. Kurt Granat, 9th grader at Mid High School in Hillsboro, won 3rd place Jr. High Trophy, score 3-2-1. All three Grade School Trophies were captured by Sams Valley Elementary School in the Rogue River Valley. Four players from Sams Valley, accompanied by their faculty sponsor, Mr. Norman Rosenblatt, entered the event. Steve Gandee won first, Tom Graves second and Tony Kershaw third. The fourth boy from this school was Tom Royal. All scored 2-0-4. The only other grade school contestant was Bob Larson from Roosevelt Elem. in Medford. All grade school players were in the 6th grade.

SCHOOL AWARDS

Junction City High School, with four players - Sam Tadlock, Scott Williams, Randy Chesteen and Stan Tait - won the trophy for the highest percentage of wins, 15 wins and 9 losses.

Corvallis High School, with five players - Jon Miede, Dewayne Derryberry, Jim Montgomery, K. Michael Beatty and Jeff Martin - won the trophy for the highest winning score, 18½ wins and 11½ losses.

St. Helens High School, with six players - Ron Hamilton, John Ridenour, Steve Hall, John Watson, Dwain Schultz and Mike Gilbert - finished in third place, 16 wins and 20 losses. St. Helens, team wise, ran into the individual accomplishment nature of this event. Team mates were paired against each other five times during the tournament. St. Helens will receive a years subscription to Chess Life & Review at their library. The USCF membership card goes to Ron Hamilton, their highest scoring player.

About this pairing team mates - If an exception is made in one place where should it be made the next time? So-o-o-o I made it a flat rule to never look at which school a player was from when making pairings. Next year's team award will be one trophy only. It will be awarded to the school with the highest scoring top four or five players from the same school. A Minimum for contention will be four players but permitting as many players from the same school as care to enter. However only the four or five players from the same school who score highest in this event will be totaled for the school's score in making this award.

OTHER PLAYERS WORTHY OF MENTION

There are always those players worth of mention who did not rate awards. Room will not allow all to be noted but here are a few.

Raymond Boldway, from Grants Pass High School, got off to a bad start by underating his first opponent for a loss. Raymond came right back for four straight wins to pair him against Phil Irwin in the sixth round. Early in the game Boldway thought he had an advantage - he did - but a little too much confidence caused him to get into a position in which Irwin was able to force piece trade-downs to a pawn ending. A win for either here placed that winner in a tie for one of the scholarships. In the pawn playoff Irwin had a passed rook-pawn which it appeared Boldway ignored in an effort to ward off a center king-pawn attack.

Ron Bryson, from Scenic Jr. High School in Central Point put up a strong battle for a Jr. High Trophy, winning his last round from a high school junior. Tiebreakers got him.

Melvin Bartels, from David Douglas in Portland, and Kevin R. Chambers, from So. Eugene High School, were both in contention to tie for a scholarship after the 5th round. They were paired in the sixth. Through the middle of their game everyone thought one of them would wind up with a score of five, depending on who they preferred. The end game developed with a probable draw staring at the two opponents. This was the only contention game left in action. Top scoring players who had completed all their games tried to persuade the T-D to call the game adjudicated as a draw. There were still a king and a bishop for each player and a pawn to Bartels' credit. Glidden refused to call the game as long as both players had legal time left on their clocks. A boner by Chambers at this point would have given Bartels the win. Until an individual player has made his move, no one can be positive - in this type of situation - what that move will be. It is exasperating to those waiting but the contending players are entitled to their own correctness or errors. Before play started on Saturday a short discussion of rules and procedures had been held. At that time the question had been asked as to whether or not there would be any adjudications. Glidden told the players he would not flatly rule out any adjudications but that he would certainly go out of his way to evade making one.

The only difficulty throughout the tournament was that the tournament director was a real grouch during the time used for making pairings - Guilty! Mrs. Marian Glidden and Douglas D. Wright, the faculty chess sponsor from Westridge Jr. High School in Westfir, Oregon, must both be extended thanks for their excellent help in administering the tournament.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS AND ORGANIZERS:

The Oregon Chess Federation is willing to help organizers who want to put on tournaments in Oregon. If you wish to apply for financial assistance, send a written request to the Tournament Committee at least twelve weeks prior to the tournament. Include tournament name, date, playing site, number of rounds, time control, entry fees, membership requirements (O.C.F. membership should be mandatory), prizes, tournament director, sponsoring organization, and amount of financial help needed. A statement should be included that profits are to be shared with the O.C.F. on a percentage basis equal to the percentage of backing given. The Tournament Committee and O.C.F. officers will act on the request and notify you if help can be given.

Send your request to: Sunny Espey
11336 SW 53rd Ave.
Portland, Ore. 97219

If you would like to hold a tournament in your area, but have not done so for lack of a qualified director, there are qualified persons who are willing to direct tournaments for very reasonable fees. If you would like help in locating a director, contact Lewis Richardson well in advance of the date of the tournament.

If you have difficulty in locating a suitable site in your area for a tournament you might try contacting local schools, the park bureau, local banks and public utilities (they often have meeting rooms); sometimes it is also possible to work out an arrangement with a local hotel.

The SELICK-KUPREJANOV game is from the last round and while they were playing Peter BIYIASAS was playing WITT. Peter playing for a win as KUPREJANOV was the threat going into the final round should he win over SELICK, however, Peter seeing KUPREJANOV crumbling under the pressure and in a lost position was content to give WITT a draw knowing it was all that was necessary to take home the Title. WITT was lost even then and was happy to get a draw out of it. I hope to get some more games from the Championships and these were courtesy of Ray KERR's CHECKMATE articles.

B.C. Interior News

The following game was played on April 12, 1970 in a match between two Interior clubs, with White (Alex J. Wood) representing the KELOWNA Chess Club and Black (Frank Veszely) representing the KAMLOOPS Chess Club. The game perhaps shows what Interior clubs are capable of producing. The lengthy annotations are by the winner.

1. P-K4 P-QB4
2. P-QN4
By sacrificing the QNP White opens up the queen side. However, the Wing Gambit Deferred 2.N-KB3, P-Q3; 3.P-QN4 is better since Black has already committed his Q pawn.
2. . . . PxP
3. P-QR3 P-Q4
The most aggressive move. 3...PxP; 4. NxP, P-Q3 or 3... P-K3 are safe.
4. PxQP QxP
5. N-KB3 P-K4
6. PxP BxP
7. N-R3
Or 7.B-R3, BxR; 8. RxR, N-QB3; 9. N-R3, Q-Q3 is good for Black.
7. . . . N-KB3!
7...BxN; 8. RxR, N-QB3; 9. P-R4, Q-Q1; 10. Q-N1, KN-K2 is safer. The following Exchange sacrifice gives Black open lines and a great lead in development.
8. N-QN5 O-O
9. N-R7 Q-B4
10. NxR P-K5
11. N-N1 R-Q1
Preventing P-B3 by BxP. At an opportune time, Black might play P-K6.
12. B-K2 N-B3
13. N-R3?
Better is 14. N-B7, N-Q5;
a) 15. P-QR4, QxN; 16. P-R3, NxR; 17. NxN1 (17. BxP; 18. RxN QxRP; 19. B-K7, B-N5!) RxP; 18. BxB, RxQch; 19. RxR and Black is better.
b) 15. P-QB3, BxP; 16. PxR, QxPch; 17. K-R1! (17. B-Q2, N-R7ch; 18. K-B1, RxR; 19. Q-R1, QxR. Giving up the Q in this variation or in 17. Q-Q2, N-B7ch is inadequate due to the looseness of White's other pieces.), QxR with 3 pawns and a strong attack for the piece.

In correspondence chess, more time is available to make moves resulting in a much more accurate game. While wild sacrifices and speculative attacks usually turn out poorly, the play can, nevertheless, be far from positional. In the following game, Black sacrifices the Exchange to get a lead in development and a strong attack.

13. . . . BxN! Also good is 13... N-Q5.
a) 14. P-QB3 and 14. P-QR4 are similar to the lines in the notes to move 13.
b) 14. R-R2, E-K3; I. 15. R-R2, B-R6; 16. RxP, NxPch; 17. K-R1, BxR; 18. QxR, N-K6ch.
18. . . . N-B6ch
19. BxN
Although better than the move played, 19. K-B1, NxR; 20. KxN giving back the Exchange leaves White a pawn down in a hopeless endgame.
19. . . . PxP
20. RxR
The only way to save the bishop and prevent mate. If 20. RxN, then R-K1ch; 21. K-B1, Q-Q6ch.
20. . . . QxR
21. PxN R-K1ch
22. K-R1 C-R3ch
23. P-R4 QxR
24. R-N3 R-K7!
Flocking the queen from the BP and putting pressure on White's CP and KBP. White cannot play 25. RxBP, CxR; 26. QxR because of Q-R8 mate.
25. P-Q4 Q-B5!
25. P-B5 K-R1
Now White must move his queen. Moving the rook leaves the RP/2 loose and mating threats; moving the QP by 27. P-C5 loses to Q-B5; 28. K-N1, Q-Q5!; 29. Q-KR1, Q-K5! with the winning threat of R-K8. Also, if 27. P-R4, P-KR4; 28. R-R3, P-R4 pushing the QRP until White moves his queen.
27. Q-N1 P-Q7
28. Q-N3 R-Q6!
RESIGNS

14. PxR
White has the KN file but his K-side pawns are broken up with a hole at f3.
14. . . . RxN
15. P-QB3
This move enables White to get control of the e3-f8 diagonal but it leaves another hole at d3.
15. . . . B-R4
16. B-R3 Q-Q4!
17. R-KN1 N-K4
18. B-K7?
Slightly better is 18. R-N3, N-Q6ch;
a) 19. BxN?, PxR; and White must guard h1. Eg.
1) 20. R-P3, R-K1ch
21. K-R1, R-N3! (not 21... R-K7, RxP!) and now R-K7 cannot be prevented.
1) 20. Q-R3, R-K1ch
21. K-R1 (21. K-Q1, C-N6ch), N-K5!
1) 20. P-R3, R-K1ch; 21. K-B1, R-K7! and N-R4 cannot be stopped.
b) 19. K-R1, B-N3;
20. P-R3 (20. R-N2, Q-KP4), N-R4; 21. R-N4, N-R4-B5 with strong pressure.

Brian Potter

This game was a heartbreaker. My opponent was about 200 rating points lower (obviously under-rated) but I had to work hard to obtain the edge after some wild opening moves. Then I blew it with one innocuous looking play. After struggling back into the game with an assist I kissed it goodbye with a final boo-boo.

A risky move which gets me into trouble. Better was Q-Q3.

White didn't like 14 QxP, N-N5ch 15 K-N1, NxB and Black has a good position after 15...B-QB4.

15 NxN

Here 15 N-B5 was to be considered. After 15...BxN 16 NxN (not 16 NxR, NxB and Black has a good game) 16...R-K1 Black is safe but 16 QxN! and White has a powerful position.

The best. After 30 BxR, RxB the K side pawns remain secure.

If the K goes to the back rank R-Q1 is a crunch.

Alright, I KNOW the K is better BEHIND the pawns but what else could I do? If 36... P-N4 37 NxPch wins. Its amazing how helpless Black became in a few moves.

Overlooking the brilliancy of a lifetime! 37 R-N5ch!! is a crunch in all variations. Everybody saw this move except the combatants!

The last chance was 41...Q-B4ch 42 Q-Q4, Q-K2ch 43 K-Q2, B-B4 and White has to work for the win.

Whoops! Its still on! Well, guess I deserve to lose when I overlook the killer twice. Incidentally, Gordon hadn't left his seat since his comeback on move 27 so he was as astounded as I was when informed of the missed brilliancy.

VANCOUVER CITY CHESS CLUBS NEWS

In the regular tournament on the First Friday of March, 18 people took part. We have this report:

"Ex-B.C. Champion S. Wuntschek proved to be quite a speedster with an impressive score of 13; losing only his last game on time. Junior B. Kruger also held his own, but found his early encounter with the winner a disaster. The two Garcias played for the first time and found it quite worthwhile for they got their money back with an identical score of 9-5.

On March 13, 1972, Peter Blyasas, the present B.C. Champion, gave a simultaneous exhibition at the Vancouver YMCA Chess Club. The 22 games lasted four hours: from 7-45 to about 11 (Editor: would you believe 3 hours?). By then, the only game left was Dave Shapero's, who had a end game of two Queens against Blyasas's one. Dave also had a pawn on the seventh rank, but the 90+ move marathon ended surprisingly (Editor: not if you know Shapero!) in a draw when the former could not escape a perpetual check.

All the players gave a good effort as shown by the result of 2 wins (Ben Kruger and Hans Frei) and 4 draws (C. Matich, L. Sjojanovic, D. Shapero, and P. Lochhead)

"In the other section, unrated L. Stojanovic was not to be stopped, after his first round split with B. Harper, until his last round encounter with his friend, C. Matich. His 2-0 over S. Pakosta, R. Chow, S. Stern, and J. Molnar indicated the time pressure his opponents were having. B. Harper made quite a run for first but was 1/2 a point short."

Tournaments are held every fourth Friday at the downtown YMCA on Burrard. Due to the large number of people coming out to these tournaments, we suggest strongly that you should either bring your own clock, or buy one, if you don't already own one.

Well thats it for this month. Sorry I didn't have more room for more games from Vancouver. I have added an extra page at that because of receiving alot of material today, 21st July and must be forwarded to Rusty tonight. Dead line for September issue in BC section is 25 AUGUST mailed to me. (Larry Kirstein, 3042 Orillia St. Victoria). Games missed this month go in next. Some material appears to have been saved up by Rob for many moons, however less talk and more games from now on hopefully.

College Chess In America

Since the republication of my History of Washington Chess, I have been asked whether I had anything else that might be of interest to Northwest fans.

Well, I am now over 80 and have been thinking that maybe over 70 years of chess activity should provide something of interest to today's players. So-o-o-

First, I would say that chess has been of great value in expanding my roster of friends who have variously added immensely to my enjoyment of life, witness the numerable weekend voyages over Puget Sound on the late John Graham's 65' cruiser, the "Pelagic". Also cruises with Dr. John Almond and family on their cruiser, to mention the higher lights.

In Spain and Mexico, I enjoyed the friendship of local players who introduced me to many interesting facets of their countries which ordinary tours would never include.

Last, but definitely not least, is the fact that chess has afforded a speedy introduction to worthwhile friends wherever I have been. Actually I believe that a player of my mediocre talents has more fun with the game than the Expert or Master, because the Master usually gives exhibitions and is then on his way. The average player probably bores him so there is little rapport. In substantiation of this idea I may mention some experts of my knowledge who have deserted the game in favor of bridge. We have one here in Leisure World who states that chess is "cut and dried" and he would rather try to fathom the intricacies of the card game, especially since included in bridge is the element of luck which is totally absent in chess.

In retrospect, one aspect of chess which gives me great satisfaction is the respectable number of older men who needed and were waiting for the upsurge in chess which George Rehberg with some assistance from me provided in the establishment of the Puget Sound League. George went further and brought out the first chess publication in the Northwest, now our Northwest Chess magazine which is truly a monumental task. The older men I am referring to were outstanding men like Husby, Cannon, Bushnell, Bever, Goubrough and many more whose lives were enriched by the opportunity to again play chess.

I have always wondered why there was no word to describe a feeling for a friend short of love and greater than liking. I think of many friends like John Almond, George Rehberg, Jack Finnigan, etc., etc., and the feeling would be better described as affection; deep or deeper. One may move physically, but the heart stays put.

Leisure World is a retirement community and we have about 20 players at a meeting, some good and some not so good. Our worst player states that he can forget his troubles only over a chess board. Another 88 year old declines to play anyone who can beat him. He claims he can not sleep after a trimming. What his victims think is not on record. My best friend says simply that at our ages, we should play for fun and not study or work at it. I am in complete agreement with him.

In conclusion, I feel I should offer some advice to the young players. Avoid playing with anyone with whom you are antagonistic. It is bad for the nerves. I have a lot, lot more to say, but it is still more uninteresting than the above. Meanwhile, have fun, it could be later than you think.

With best wishes to all,

Jack Nourse

How can college chess be promoted on the local and regional level? Two possibilities are regional intercollegiate tournaments and state college championships. Both methods have been used successfully by active organizers.

Two international organizations, the Intercollegiate Chess League of America (ICLA) and the Association of College Unions (ACU) sponsor a series of regional events each year. Recent examples include the Eastern Intercollegiate (ICLA) held in Harrisburg, PA., won by the University of Rochester ahead of 11 teams; and the Region XIII tournament (ACU) held in Colorado Springs, won by Arizona State University.

In ICLA events, team score is based on the four top players from a school or else teams of four student are paired directly against other teams. In ACU competition, players are always paired as individuals and teams consist of two players from a school.

This year, CS club columnist Martin Morrison experimented with a different format. The collegiate Class Championships of the Far West (ICLA) attracted 42 players competing in sections arranged according to strength.

Some organizers prefer to operate independently and set up their own regionals. Georgia Tech sponsored a Southeastern Intercollegiate that attracted 42 players from five states.

The University of Massachusetts organized the 1972 New England Intercollegiate which drew 24 players, also from five states.

Recent successful statewide intercollegiates have utilized the team vs. team format. The 1972 Indiana Collegiate was possibly the largest state championship ever held with 57 players and 14 teams. This was the fourth year in a row that John Campbell of Ball State University has run this event. The 1972 New York State Intercollegiate, held in Utica, turned into a six-team round robin won by CUNY. New Jersey and Iowa have also recently held state championships and other states will probably do so in the near future.

Successful regionals and state championships require careful planning. The date should be chosen well in advance, with attention to vacation and exam patterns of colleges in your area.

Low cost housing should be available if possible - sometimes dormitories can be used. Organizers should obtain address lists for active college clubs in their areas. If you wish to utilize the ICLA mailing list, write me for a copy.

All chess activity benefits when college chess flourishes. Why not organize a regional event or state championship in your locale or encourage other to do so?

FISCHER - SPASSKY GAMES

Notes Games 1-5 by James Bricher, Cottage Grove, Oregon

Other notes are from other sources chosen by R. W. Miller

World Championship Games-annotations by James Bricher

Game 1 White:Spassky Black:Fischer Nimzo-Indian Defense (1-0)

- 1. P-Q4 N-KB3
 - 2. P-QB4 P-K3
 - 3. N-KB3 P-Q4
 - 4. N-B3 B-N5
 - 5. P-K3(a) O-O
 - 6. B-Q3 P-B4
 - 7. O-O N-B3
 - 8. P-QR3 B-R4(b)
 - 9. N-K2(c) QxP
 - 10 BxP B-N3
 - 11 Pxp(d) QxQ
 - 12 RxQ BxP
 - 13 P-QN4 B-K2
 - 14 B-N2 B-Q2!
- A new move. Fischer improves on Spassky-Krogius, USSR Championship 1958, where Krogius played 14.... P-QN3? The game continued 15 N-B4, B-N2; 16 N-N5, N-Q1; 17 QR-B1, P-KR3; 18 N(5)xKP, PxN; 19 Nxp, R-B1; 20 B-N3, N-B2; 21 Nxr, KxN; 22 BxRch, BxR; 23 R-QB1 & White won
- 15 QR-B1(e) KR-Q1
 - 16 N(2)-Q4(f) NxN
 - 17 NxN B-R5
 - 18 B-N3 BxB(g)
 - 19 NxB RxRch
 - 20 RxB R-QB1
 - 21 K-B1 K-B1
 - 22 K-K2 N-K5
 - 23 R-QB1 RxR
 - 24 BxR P-B3(h)
 - 25 N-R5 N-Q3
 - 26 K-Q3 B-Q1(i)
 - 27 N-B4 B-B2
 - 28 NxN BxN
 - 29 P-N5 BxKRP?(j)

A serious miscalculation. Perhaps Fischer planned 30 P-N3, P-KR4 31 K-K4, P-R5; 32 K-B3, P-R6; 33 K-N4, B-N3; 34 KxP, BxP but missed 35 B-Q2 winning the bishop.

- 30. P-N3 P-KR4
- 31. K-K4 P-R5
- 32. K-B3 K-K2(k)
- 33. K-N2 PxP
- 34. PxP BxP
- 35. KxB K-Q3
- 36. P-R4 K-Q4
- 37. B-R3 K-K5
- 38. B-B5 P-R3
- 39. P-N6 P-B4
- 40. K-R4

As Evans pointed out Black can now force a draw with 40...., K-Q4! e.g. 41 B-N4, P-K4; 42 K-N5, P-B5; 43 Pxp, Pxp; 44 KxP, K-B3; 45 P-R5, K-Q2! followed by K-B1 with a draw no matter what White does. Black simply keeps his king close to his pawns and is stalemated if White ventures too near.

- 40. P-B5?
- Now Black is lost.
- 41. Pxp KxP
- 42. K-R5(1) K-B4
- 43. B-K3 K-K5
- 44. B-B2 K-B4
- 45. B-R4 P-K4
- 46. B-N5 P-K5
- 47. B-K3 K-B3
- 48. K-N4 K-K4
- 49. K-N5 K-Q4
- 50. K-B5 P-R4
- 51. B-B2 P-N4(m)
- 52. KxP K-B5
- 53. K-B5 K-N5
- 54. KxP KxP
- 55. K-Q5 K-N4
- 56. K-Q6(n) RESIGNS

Knight from any attack of White Bishop.

- i: Forces away Whites most active piece without setting up a pawn formation.
- j: Now Fischer may have fallen victim to his consistent philosophy of striving to press every game to win, or he may have lost patience with himself under the pressure of protracted defense and decided to undertake some positive action or he may simply have miscalculated the key variation for he took very little time to decide on this move.
- k: Get that King over to Queen-side is the best chance.
- l: White moves closer to the Queen side as that is the chance to win. If 42. B-Q6ch, P-K4; 43. P-R5 would not work for Black can have stalemate by heading the King to the QB1.
- m: Trying to make White King move from the crucial area.
- n: The White King gets to QB7 and so decides the issue.

GAME 2
WHITE FISCHER BLACK SPASSKY
0 - 1 Forfeit

Game 3 White:Spassky Black:Fischer Bononi (0-1)

- 1. P-Q4 N-KB3
 - 2. P-QB4 P-K3
 - 3. N-KB3 P-B4
 - 4. P-Q5 Pxp
 - 5. PxB P-Q3
 - 6. N-B3 P-KN3
 - 7. N-Q2 QN-Q2
 - 8. P-K4
- If 8. N-B4, N-N3! probably equalizes.
- 8. B-N2
 - 9. B-K2 O-O
 - 10. O-O R-K1
 - 11. Q-B2 N-R4!
- An innovation. Fischer allows himself to be saddled with doubled, isolated, rook pawns in order to gain the two bishops & attacking chances on the K-side.
- 12. BxN PxB
 - 13. N-B4 N-K4
 - 14. N-K3
 - 14 NxN seems better.
 - In the game Spassky traded knights anyway under worse conditions
 - 14. Q-R5
 - 15. B-Q2
 - 15 P-B3 seems better, but Whites center would be no more active than in the game and Black would still have attacking chances.
 - 15. N-N5
 - 16. NxN PxN
 - 17. B-B4 Q-B3
 - 18. P-KN3?
 - Not only does this weaken the K-side seriously, the K pawn now lacks solid support. White is probably lost
 - 18. B-Q2
 - 19. P-QR4 P-N3
 - 20. KR-K1 P-QR3
 - 21. R-K2 P-N4

- 22. QR-K1 Q-N3
 - 23. P-N3 R-K2
 - 24. Q-Q3 R-N1
 - 25. Pxp Pxp
 - 26. P-N4 P-B5
 - 27. Q-Q2 QR-K1
- Blacks advance on the Q-side has netted him a protected passer, which although it is firmly blockaded, will need watching. More important is the state of affairs in the center. White, unable to take advantage of his central majority is left with a straggler on the K-file that is fatally weak. Blacks pressure on Whites center, coupled with active play on both flanks, has ground White down to a state of utter passivity.
- 28. R-K3 P-R4
 - 29. R(3)-K2 K-R2
 - 30. R-K3 K-N1
 - 31. R(3)-K2 BxN
 - 32. QxB RxP
 - 33. RxR RxR
 - 34. RxR QxR
 - 35. B-R6 Q-N3
 - 36. B-B1 Q-N8
 - 37. K-B1 B-B4
 - 38. K-K2 Q-K5ch
 - 39. Q-K3 Q-B7ch
 - 40. Q-Q2 Q-N6
 - 41. Q-Q4(?)
 - White could put up tougher resistance with K-B1 or K-K1.
 - 41. B-Q6ch
 - The sealed move seals Whites fate. White resigned for if K-K3, Q-Q8 wins, and if K-K1 QxPch wins another pawn while keeping up a strong attack. Note how the bishops of opposite color favored the attacker.

More Notes to Game 1

- a: White has avoided sharper lines with an eventual early Black's P-QN3 or P-B4 in the Nimzo-Indian, he accepts the position of the Nimzo-Indian with the different move order. They reach the classical main line variation by move 8.
- b: This is not frequently played, but is played with the idea of preserving the bishop from exchange against a knight. Fischer seems to always prefer the bishop over the knight.
- c: This is best but often played is 9. BxP, KxP; 10. Pxp, BxN; 11. PxB. Text avoids theoretical lines and threatens 10. QxP.
- d: Prevents having an isolated pawn in the center. Black has no weaknesses and goes into an almost even endgame.
- e: Note 15. BxN? for BxB; 16. RxB??, BxR.
- f: White offers to exchange his passive knight. Could have played 16. N-B3 to avoid more exchanging of pieces but then White would not achieve much bringing back the knight where it was before with a loss of a tempo.
- g: 18...., RxN? 19. BxB serves no purpose. The exchange of white-squared Bishops is better for Black, for White is a little weak on these squares on Q-side and the pawns there are somewhat exposed.
- h: This protects the defensive square Q3 for Black

Game 4 White:Fischer
 Black:Spassky (白-黒)
 Sicilian Defence

1. P-K4 P-QB4
2. N-KB3 P-Q3
3. P-Q4 PxP
4. NxP N-KB3
5. N-QB3 N-B3
6. E-QB4 P-K3

13. Q-Q3 P-QR4!(?) (d)
14. P-K5 PxP
15. PxP N-Q2
16. NxP N-B4

Black has compensation for the pawn "sacked" in the form of a weak White K-pawn & the two bishops which he will soon gain.

17. BxN (e)
 The other possibility was 17 Q-K3, NxB: 18 QxN, P-R5: 19 Q-K3, B-R3 20 P-B4, R-N1: 21 P-QN4 BxN: 22 PxB, RxP. Fischer prefers a more aggressive line.

17. BxBch
 18. K-R1 Q-N4 (f)
 Black has a nice game. His Queen & two bishops "smile" at Whites king, and he has pressure on the king pawn. Still, there is no clear continuation

More Notes to Game 4

- a: Other top line is 9.Q-K2 then 10.O-O-O as in Fischer-Larsen(Palma de Mallorca 1970)
- b: Korchnoi move is 9..., NxN 10.BxN, P-QN4!?
- c: Text is better than 10..., B-Q2
- d: Black is trying Queen-side action without any time loss. Black has used only 5 minutes on his clock up to this point. Must be result of prepared analysis.
- e: Keeps the white-squared Bishop on the board to better protect the Queen side pawn mass.
- f: Black finnally stops to think here. If 18..., QxQ 19.PxQ, B-K3; 20.N-B7 giving White a little advantage in endgame. Also playable would be 20.QR-B1 or B-B4.
- g: Could have played 20..., B-R3 trying for a draw under conditions of bishops of opposite color.
- h: If 21. R-Q1; 22.N-Q6 better for White.
- i: Black is trying to win. On 24...Q-N6; 25.N-K4, QxP; 26.NxB, QxN is equal. 25.R-Q3? would be a mistake for 25..., BxPch!; 26.QxB, Q-K8ch; 27.K-R2, QxPch; 28.K-R1, Q-K8ch; 29.K-R2, BxNch; 30.RxB, Q-K4ch wins.
- j: Prevents 25..., Q-N6. If 25.R-Q3, B-B5 would allow Black advantage of bishop pair.
- k: Take a look at 29..., R-Q1!; 30.N-B5ch, K-B3!; or 30.P-B3, B-Q3. Black had to start moving faster for his time was getting short.
- l: Note 31.PxB?, R-R5.
- m: Note 32.K-N1 for R-R5! would force White to resign.

Game 5 White:Spassky
 Black:Fischer Nimzo-Indian Defence (O-1)

1. P-Q4 N-KB3
2. P-QB4 P-K3
3. N-QB3 B-N5
4. N-B3 P-B4
5. P-K3 N-B3
6. B-Q3 BxNch
7. PxB P-Q3 (a)

19. Q-K2 QR-Q1
20. QR-Q1 RxR (g)
21. RxR P-R4 (h)
22. N-Q6 B-R1
23. B-B4 P-KR5
24. P-R3 B-K6(f)
25. Q-N4(j) QxP
26. QxRP P-N4

White has traded off one of his weaknesses at the cost of giving Black a half open file against his king.

Attack and defence follow in perfect balance and a draw is the proper result.

27. Q-N4 B-B4
28. N-N5 K-N2
29. N-Q4 R-R1 (k)

If 29 ..., B-Q3: 30 N-B5ch! draws as Koltanowski pointed out.

30. N-B3 BxN
31. QxB (l) B-Q3
32. Q-B3 (m) QxQ
33. PxQ B-K4

Now a draw is almost certain.

34. R-Q7 K-B3
35. K-N1 BxP
36. B-K2 B-K4
37. K-B1 R-QB1
38. P-R5 R-B2
39. RxR BxR
40. P-QR4 K-K2
41. K-K2 P-B4
42. K-Q3 B-K4
43. P-B4 K-Q3
44. B-B7 B-N6
45. P-B5ch DRAW

Blacks loss of a tempo by not waiting for P-QR3 by White is compensated by the somewhat awkward position of Whites knight in this formation.

8. P-K4 P-K4
9. P-Q5 N-K2

10. N-R4 P-KR3 (b)
11. P-B4 (c) N-N3 (d)
12. NxN PxN
13. PxP PxP
14. B-K3 P-N3
15. O-O O-O
16. P-QR4 P-QR4 (e)

Flacks weakness at QN3 is compensated by Whites weakness at QR4. If White is allowed to trade off his weakness by P-QR5 Black wouldn't have this for compensation.

NOTES TO GAME 5

- a: This is line often used by Huebner. It could not be avoided as White developed his KN in the early part of the game.
- b: All played before. Both sides fight for more space on the crucial King side there the position maybe opened. Black intends 11..., P-KN4 to stop the advance of the KB pawn.
- c: More caution move is 11.P-B3, P-KN4; 12.N-B5.
- d: A wise move for 11..., PxP; 12.BxP, P-KN4; 13.P-K5! is quite an attack. Black choses to close up the position.
- e: Black does not allow the opening of files.
- f: Black has a weak pawn so aim at it.
- g: Not 19...Q-B2? for it allows 20. BxRP. So place the Queen on King side where White has doubled his Rooks but has a passive Bishop on Q3.
- h: On 20.P-R3, P-KN4 then P-N5 is quite a threat.
- i: 26...N-B3 would have allowed 27.B-KN3! and activating his pieces. With Black Knight at B5 it is hard for White to get it off this stronghold without weakening his position.
- j: 27. Q-N1 is a try but his position is difficult. Another try is 27. Q-B3. The text is Spassky's first blunder of the match.
- k: Should White reply 28.QxB, QxP threatens mate two ways on KN7 and K8.

Open Letter to NWC Readers!

Hello, again! This time from right inside Washington state!

First, I extend my thanks and appreciation to the members of the Tacoma Chess Club for their fine hospitality during my visit. Second, I offer apologies to my opponents in the Masters/Experts Section of the Rose City Open in Portland - I will put up a better fight next time! Third, again my appreciation to the Spokane Chess Club while I played in their Caissa Open weekend tournament, scoring a morale-booster 5-0.

Mr. B. H. Wood and I talked by long distance phone and I'll be at CHESS magazine offices (Sutton Coldfield, England) by June 15th. After a 2-3 months' trial, I'll either remain for a much longer period or return to the Pacific Northwest. Mainly, this marks for me a major transition from part-time chess promotion to full-time, or PROFESSIONAL chess work.

Before leaving the Northwest, I discussed many of my chess projects and ideas with wCF President Russell W. Miller. I then made an offer of a chess business partnership, which he declined. As a result, my son David and I have formed the AMERICAN CHESS SERVICE (first tournament announcement in this issue). ACS will organize tournaments, and provide other services as time goes on.

Keep Northwest Chess growing!

California Junior:

- 1st-Mark Saylor (1950 c), 5½-½, San Bernardino
- 2nd-Rick Flacco (2050 c), 5½-½, Los Angeles

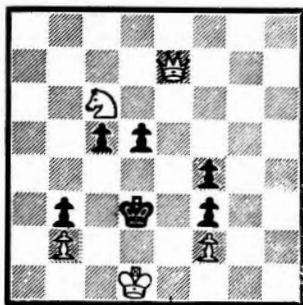

The 1972 California Junior was a real upset in that 11th rated Mark Saylor (117 players) came out on top over California State Champion Kim Commons, Master Jeff Kent, and a number of promising experts.

I felt that the following games were much more interesting than any played in the U. S. Junior Rd. 7. The tension during the Commons-Kent game was great and the spectators crowding around their board far outnumbered any in the U. S. Junior room.

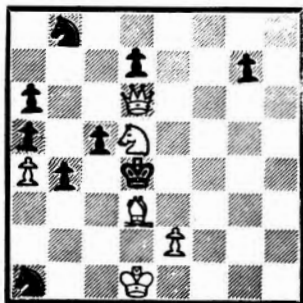

One note is that after this game, Kent appeared to be fatigued which partially accounts for his play against Flacco.

Tigran Petrosyan of the USSR took first place in the Candidates Tournament at Curacao with a score of 8 wins, 19 draws, and no losses. This win entitles Petrosyan to play against Michael Botvinnik for the Chess Championship of the world next year.

Yefim Geller, USSR placed second with 8 wins, 18 draws, and 1 loss. Paul Keres, USSR took third place with 9 wins, 16 draws, and 2 losses.

Bobby Fisher, USA, came in fourth place with 8 wins, 12 draws and 7 losses. Maybe three years from now the contender for the USA will make through to the top.

Larry Evans, present United States Champion, won the national "30-30" championship played in New York. 98 players competed in the match. Close runner-up to Evans was James T. Sherwin who matched the 6-1 score but was relegated to second place on tie break points.

John Bell of Portland, Oregon won the Puget Sound Open played in Fircrest, Washington last month. Bell's winning score of 5 1/2-1/2 placed him a half point ahead of Washington State Champion Viesturs Seglins.

The following game was played in the second round of the 1970 Seattle Open. It features an offbeat Sicilian of a kind which, it turns out, was played some 80 years ago, although I didn't know that at the time. White is Bruce Bailey, Black is Kent Pullen.

- | | | | |
|-----------|--------|-----------|-------|
| 1. e2-e4 | c7-c5 | 3. d2-d4 | c5:d4 |
| 2. Ng1-f3 | Nb8-c6 | 4. Nf3:d4 | g7-g6 |

The accelerated fianchetto. White decides to experiment, getting out of Black's book.

5. Nd4:c6! b7:c6 6. Qd1-d4 Ng8-f6? This cannot be best. In a game Em. Lasker - Bird, New-Castle-on-Tyne, 1892, the play went 6. ... f7-f6, 7. Nbl-c3 Bf8-g7 8. Bcl-f4 Ng8-h6, 9. O-O Nhf6-f7, 10. Bcl-e3 O-O, and Bird got a good game. Lasker won. Three years later, in the big Hastings 1895 Tournament, Schlechter (White) played the same variation against Em. Lasker. Again Black deployed his KN on f7, followed by a general expansion in the center. Again Lasker won, which must prove something. 7. e4-e5 Nf6-g8 8. e5-e6 Ng8-f6

The travels of the Knight are really strange. Perhaps Black is indulging in provocative tactics, trying to lure White into over-extension.

- | | | | |
|-----------|--------|------------|-----|
| 9. e6:f7+ | Ke8:f7 | 10. Nbl-d2 | ... |
|-----------|--------|------------|-----|

The Knight is headed for the Kingside, specifically the square g5. It would have been better to develop the QB, securing the square d2 as a comfortable retreat for the Queen. However, Black's reply changes things.

- | | | | |
|-----------|--------|-------------|-----|
| 10. ... | Qd8-a5 | 12. Bf1-c4+ | ... |
| 11. c2-c3 | e7-e5 | | |

Setting Black some more problems. He should play 12. ... Kf7-g7 and dare White's worst, but instead he chooses a dubious Pawn sacrifice.

- | | | | |
|------------|--------|------------|--------|
| 12. ... | d7-d5! | 14. Nd2-b3 | Qa5-d8 |

- | | | | |
|------------|--------|--------------|-----|
| 19. Ke2-d1 | Qb6-b5 | 20. Kdl-c2?! | ... |
|------------|--------|--------------|-----|

Inviting the Queen check, planning to play Nd2 followed by the eviction of the Queen by Rhl1 with gain of time. However, by 20. ... Qb5-e2+, 21. Nb3-d2 Nf6-e4, 22. Qg5-f4+ Kf7-g8, 23. Rhl-e1 Qe2-b5 Black gains a dangerous initiative. It was better to play 20. Rhl-e1 directly, then the King move after.

- | | | | |
|-------------|-----------|-------------|-----|
| 20. ... | Nf6-e4(?) | 22. Rhl-e1! | ... |
| 21. Qg5-f4+ | Kf7-g8 | | |

Offering to return the extra pawn, but in such a way as to weaken Black's pawns and eliminate his initiative. White is no longer willing to allow the check on e2, as after 22. Rhl-f1.

- | | | | |
|------------|--------|------------|---------|
| 22. ... | Re8-f8 | 25. Qh5-e2 | Qb5:e2+ |
| 23. Qf4-h4 | g6-g5 | 26. Rel:e2 | Nf2-e4 |
| 24. Qh4-h5 | Re4:f2 | | |

White has a fractionally better game, due to Black's Pawn dispersion. Black's play will probably consist of Ra8-c8, followed by the advance of the center Pawns to force a passer, supported by the Black Bishop. Accordingly White decides to exchange the Bishops.

- | | | | |
|------------|--------|------------|--------|
| 27. Nb3-d4 | Rf8-f6 | 30. Bd4:g7 | Kg8:g7 |
| 28. Nd4-f3 | h7-h6 | 31. Ra1-e1 | Ra8-e8 |
| 29. Be3-d4 | Rf6-e6 | 32. Nf3-d2 | ... |

With this move White offered a draw which Black declined, unwisely in view of his pressing time trouble. There doesn't seem to be much in the position for either player. With his next move Black presses too hard, weakening his pawns without any good reason. After that move White decides to play for a win.

- | | | | |
|------------|--------|------------|--------|
| 32. ... | g5-g4? | 34. Kc2-d2 | Kg7-g6 |
| 33. Nd2:e4 | d5:e4 | 35. Kd2-e3 | Kg6-g5 |

A consequence of the error on his 32nd move. White threatened Ke3-f4, winning a Pawn. But now White gets both open files, and the weakness of Black's Q-side Pawns begins to tell.

- | | | | |
|------------|--------|--|--|
| 36. Rel-d1 | Re8-e7 | | |
| 37. Re2-f2 | Re6-e5 | | |

Again necessary, because White threatened to play 38. Rf2-f4 and 39. Rdl-d4, winning the e-Pawn. To prevent this Black must play c6-c5, but he cannot do this without a Rook on e5 because of Rdl-d5(+), winning one pawn or the other.

- | | | | |
|-----------|-------|------------|-----|
| 38. c3-c4 | a7-a5 | 39. b2-b3? | ... |
|-----------|-------|------------|-----|
- Giving Black a target, but he hasn't enough time to exploit it. On Black's 38th he should have played h6-h5.

- | | | | |
|------------|--------|------------|-----|
| 39. ... | Re7-e6 | 41. Rdl-d7 | ... |
| 40. Rf2-f4 | c6-c5 | | |

Threatening everything! Black's time trouble was now severe.

- | | | | |
|-------------|--------|------------|----------|
| 41. ... | a5-a4 | 43. Rf4:g4 | Re6-d6?? |
| 42. Rd7-g7+ | Kg5-h5 | | |

Losing immediately. Perhaps Black is playing for a spite check.

- | | | | |
|------------|---------|------------|------|
| 44. g2-g3! | Rd6-d3+ | 46. Rg4-h4 | mate |
| 45. Ke3-e2 | Rd3-d4 | | |

Time control is now past, and Black's time pressure is over, but so is the game. White's opening experiment turned out well in this game, but I don't plan to repeat it.

Russell's Chess Chats

BY RUSSELL W. MILLER

Mecking of Brazil won South American Zonal with 17-3, 2½ points ahead of Panno and Quinteros. Mecking gets a spot in 1973 Interzonal but Panno and Quinteros must play a match to decide which ones goes.

Bent Larsen of Denmark won a category 10 International Tournament at Teeside, England with 11-5. 2nd was Ljubojevic of Yug with 10 then Portisch of Hungary and Gligoric. Average rating of event was 2483.

Kagan of Isreal easily won Zonal event in section 9 to win a spot in 1973 Interzonal.

Soviet Union defeated Yugoslavia in their 15th annual match. Petrosjan drew two with Ivkov and won two from Planinz when Ivkov had to leave for Zonal event. Kortschnoi won 2 drew against Matulovic losing one also. Stein drew twice with Ljubojevic but won twice against Welimtrovic when Ljubojevic left for Caorle. After 11 round of Zonal event at Caorle the leaders are: Ljubojevic 8½, Ivkov 7½, Forintos 7, Ree 6½. Those interzonals in 1973 will be really something.

In the past they have been 22 or so man events from which the top six players advanced to Candidates Matches. In 1973 there will be two 16 player events made as even as possible I believe by use of ratings and only top three from each advance. That should make it much more of fight for those top spots.

The news media has been covering the Fischer-Spassky match with almost more coverage than the chess world could have hoped for. NEWSWEEK and TIME both did cover stories. Daily newspapers in most every city in USA have a story daily. Many are printing the games. Some place the stories in general news, sometimes on page 1 while others place it on sports pages. I understand that radio stations and newspapers all over have people in them playing each game over as the moves cover in from Iceland. Editors are sending out reporters to ask chess players about matches and writing stories and features on chess. Sports Editor in Yakima came to Sunfair Open and talked to Pupols, who has beaten Fischer (US Junior in Lincoln), McCormick, and Blyasas and then wrote his Sunday column on it. The Yakima-Herald & Republic is the paper and they usually print a diagram along with the game score. Your writer has a three time a week 5 minute program on chess on KIT Radio in Yakima. A time slot of 5 minutes on KBBO Radio also. Some weekly newspapers to which I have been sending my CHESS IN THE NORTHWEST Column to for the last few weeks have been printing parts of it.

The next two games were played in the Portland Fall Open. Although they are not as 'brilliant' as the last game, they certainly illustrate the battle for the centre, and hence qualify as strategic brilliancies

The Brilliancy Prize

V King's Indian Defence

White: Jon Mieshe
Black: Joe Brandenburg

1 P-Q4 N-KB3 5 B-K2 O-O
2 P-QB4 P-N3 6 N-KB3 P-K4
3 N-KB3 B-N2 7 Q-Q N-B3
4 P-K4 P-Q3 8 P-Q5 N-K2

Here comes a 'partitioning of the ways'. Possibilities are 9 N-Q2, 9 N-K1, 9 B-Q2 and 9 P-QN4, as played. All four have been popular in grandmaster play, as white searches for a 'refutation' to the King's Indian Defence. Interested readers should consult 'Game of the Month' by Svetozar Gligoric in the December 1971 Chess Life and Review.

9 P-QN4 N-K1 Also possible are ...N-Q2 and ...N-R4. Gligoric seems to prefer the latter.
10 Q-N3 Out of the book now! An alternative is 10 P-B5 K-R1 11 P-QR4 P-KB4 12 N-N5 P-KR3 13 N-K6 BxN 14 PxB BXP 15 PXP NXP 16 P-N3 Gligoric-Evans Amsterdam, 1971, and white has compensation for the pawn. The text does not seem to be an improvement

10 P-KB4
11 N-Q2 N-KB3
12 P-B5 K-N1 It seems to me that...B-R3, putting pressure on the centre, is the proper answer to White's queen-side foray. However, the text serves the useful purpose of taking the king off the diagonal of the white queen.

13 N-Q1 It is not clear why the QP should be protected by the rook. Tending to the 'base' with P-B5 is more thematic. Note that white has only one piece on the king-side.

13 P-B5? A very common motif in these positions. However, in view of the rather naked state of white's king 13... B-K3, threatening the KP, seems better. It should be noted that it is not always advantageous to trade off this bishop, and then place one's pawns on black squares. This is because the bishop is able to defend the all-important base on Q3 from KB1 (as we will see), and also because trading off the bishop always gives white some extra tempos to develop an attack

14 N-B4 P-KN4
15 P-B3 N-N3
16 B-R2? 16 P-QR4 would make operations on the Q-side a little smoother, as the pawn not only shields the Bishop on QR3, but can also be used as a battering ram against black's 'virgin' queen-side pawns!

16 R-B2?1
17 P-N5 B-B1 Back home again! After white's next, however, full siege is brought against the pawn on Q3. In view of this, it may have been wiser to play 16... N-K1 so that if 17 P-N5 P-N3! keeps the Q-side action to a minimum.

18 P-N01 Hitting the base!
18 RXP
19 PXP PXP A budding young 'Suttles' might play ...P-QB3 here, but would not get sufficient compensation, as the reader may prove for himself. For example 19 ... P-B3 20 PXP B-K3 21 P-B7 Q-Q2 22 BXP BxB 23 RxB QxR 24 NxQ BxQ 25 P-B8 (Q)ch and white comes out a pawn ahead. Or 20...P-Q4 21 P-B7 Q-K1 22 RXP N-N 23 P-N BxB 24 NxB P-K5, and white should survive.

20 N-N5 N-K1
21 KR-QB1 B-Q2?? Blundering away the base of his pawn chain. Black's game soon collapses. It was necessary to play P-KR4 22 R-B3 P-N5 QB-B1 (threatening to capture the QP) PXP 24 BXP (or PXP) B-N5 (B-R6) with good practical chances of survival.

22 N/5XP NxN 24 Q-N4 B-N2??
23 BxN B-R5 25 NxNP Resigns

We have two games this month by Ernst Rasmussen of Tacoma. I greatly enjoyed playing over the games which Ernst sent in to me. It is quite refreshing to see a player throw caution to the wind, something which is very rare in these days of cautious positional play. These are the first games published in this column which, in my opinion, truly deserve the epithet 'Brilliancy Prize', because they are the first where a player has sacrificed material solely on the basis of intuition, rather than long calculations.

X Blackmar Diemer Gambit

White: Ernst Rasmussen
Black: Jude Acers (12 - board simultaneous)

1 P-Q4 N-KB3 3 P-K4
2 N-QB5 P-Q4

The Blackmar-Diemer Gambit, usually reached by 1 P-Q4 P-Q4 2 P-K4. The idea of the sacrifice is to clear lines for quick development and an immediate king-side attack. It is generally considered that black can get a small advantage with exact play.

In the gambit proper, there would still be four knights on the board. Although the trade weakens white's attack, it also takes a piece away from the defence of the black king.

5 P-KB3 PXP?1
Accepting the challenge (pawn). With 5...P-K4 instead of this move, black equalizes easily. E.g. 1 6 PXP QxQch 7 KxQ PXP 8 NXP B-KN5, followed by N-B3 and O-O-Och with active play. 11) 6 P-Q5 PXP 7 NXP P-K5! with the initiative and a pawn. 11) 6 B-K3 PXP 7 BXP N-QB3 8 B-N5 B-Q2 and black has a nice game. As with most gambits, a counter stroke in the centre is amazingly effective.

6 NXP P-KN3 8 O-O O-O
7 B-QB4 B-N2 9 P-B3! N-Q2
Weak, but it is difficult to find really good moves. 9... B-N5 is refuted by 10 Q-N3. Perhaps it was better not to fianchetto the king's bishop

10 N-N5 P-K3
I would be inclined to avoid the ensuing weakness by 10 ... N-B3 11 Q-N3 Q-K1, intending ...P-KR3 at the right moment

11 Q-B5 N-B3 13 N-B3 P-K4
12 Q-R3! P-KR3
Forced. Passive defence by, say, K-N2 14 N-K5 P-QB4 15 NxN QxR 16 N-N4 Q-B4 17 B-Q3 Q-Q4 18 NXP with a winning attack, would leave the result in no doubt.

14 Q-N3 PXP 17 BxN PxB
15 QxNP N-Q4 18 QR-Q1 Q-K2
16 Q-N3 N-K6 19 N-Q4 P-QB4

White consolidates his position, first going after the advanced pawn on K3
20 N-K2 K-R1 22 NXP Q-B3?
21 R-B3 P-QN4

...Q-N4 gives better chances of survival
23 R-KB1 Q-QN3?? 24 RXP! R-KN1
If 24...NxB, 25 B-K8 mates. Now white can play K-K8, but after ...B-N5, this move proves slightly less efficient than the text

25 RxB! RxR 28 BxRch QxB
26 R-K8ch K-R2 29 R-K7oh Resigns
27 B-Q3ch R-N3

VII Haley's Comet

White: Phil Irwin
Black: Jon Mieshe

1 P-K4 P-K3 3 P-QB4 B-N2
2 P-Q4 P-QN3 4 N-QB3
Instead of this, it was possible to play 4 P-Q5!?, looking in the bishop. It is more accurate for black to play ...P-QN3 on the first move, rather than allow white to construct a wedge against the bishop
4 B-N5
5 B-Q3 N-KB3 Here, ...P-KB4 allows black more counterplay. The text allows white to build a strong central position. Continued next page

6 Q-B2 P-Q4 9 F-QR3 BxNch
 7 BPxP Pxp 10 PxB N-Q2
 8 P-K5 N-K5 11 P-QB4 +

Not the best. white is trying to take advantage of the bad position of the N on 'e4', but will have to play accurately to secure his advantage. Clearly good for white was 11 N-B3, threatening P-B3. In playing the text, white moves the base of his pawn chain, and activates the black QB - a large price to pay!

11 N-N4 Also possible was ...N-B1, but 12 N-K2 would secure white's centre
 12 P-B4? Better here is Pxp Bxp 13 BxN QxB 14 B-K4 BxB 15 QxB O-O 16 N-B3 (R3), where the central pawn mass gives white a slightly better game
 12 N-K3
 13 Pxp Bxp
 14 B-K4? Now white is lost. After B-K3 P-QB4, black is better, due to the open position of white's king.

Next month we will have some games in algebraic notation, including some by the Northwest's top players! If you have any games you like, write to: Jon Berry 4430 W 13th Avenue, Vancouver 8, B. C.

Johnny Lightnin's Fastest Five

Them pawns keep rollin' off the board

I've dropped a knight!

Oh good Lord

My king's en prise

There's mate in three

I didn't see it

Why should he?

I've dropped two bishops and a rook

But he's the one who should be shook

While I was moving fast and straight

He took the time to hesitate

He chose each move

And very well

He mated me

The truth to tell

He mated me

And very well

But not before his flag fell.

Seattle Chess Club

The Seattle Chess Club held a five minute tournament on May 12th. A handicap system of one minute for each 150 points difference was employed.

1976	Eric Pearson	X	0	1	1	1	2	1	6
2390	Bob Zuk	2	X	1	2	1	2	2	10
2211	John Walker	1	1	X	2	2	1	½	7½
1661	Sam Barr	1	0	0	X	1	0	1	3
1796	Hal Wright	1	1	0	1	X	0	1	4
1750	Larry Stone	0	0	1	2	2	X	1	6
2109	Carl Sloan	1	0	1½	1	1	1	X	5½

A tournament between the sharks and the fish. The sharks won. Seven dollars to Bob Zuk and five to John Walker.

On Friday June 2nd the Seattle Chess Club hosted a simultaneous exhibition by Mike Franett, 1972 Washington State champion. In a little over 2½ hours the exhibition was concluded, the final tally: 9 to 4, Franett. Jerry Nealy, S.M.C. Duncan, and D. Leo Stefurak pulled down wins and each received a years free membership to the club for their efforts. High School Director Duane Polich and Dr. Robert Burns both scored draws and were awarded six month club memberships. All in all a profitable night for the black side. Mike, somewhat off form from his recent U. of W. score of 21½-½ explained, "It's finals week."

The month of May saw the conclusion of the Seattle Chess Clubs championship tournament. This yearly event was won by Vladimir Pafnutieff, former state champion of California, who scored a perfect 5-0 in the final section. Knotted for second were Norm Abrahamson, Bill Thomas, and Rick Roth with 3½ each. This event was highly successful and saw 16 members compete in three sections for the championship. Tournament director Marv Hayami did a commendable job.

Historical Corner

While rumaging about in her attic last winter, a 74 year old widow discovered two dusty and forgotten score-sheets, dated in the late 1860s. She immediately rushed them to the Baton Rouge Institute for Supernatural Studies, which applied Carbon 14 tests and isotope configuration graphs confirming the date.

We offer these games to the readers, with the thesis that they were played against some obscure potzers by the great P. Morphy. They were transcribed in a firm hand, but the real clue is the consistent and vibrant play on White's part.

Vienna Opening

- | | |
|---------------|-------------|
| P. Morphy (?) | A. N. Other |
| 1.P-K4 | P-K4 |
| 2.N-QB3 | N-KB3 |
| 3.B-B4 | NxP |
| 4.P-KB4!? | Q-R5ch? |

It must be remembered that at this time White's fourth move was not as well known as it is today.

- | | |
|---------|------|
| 5.P-KN3 | NxNP |
| 6.N-B3 | Q-R4 |
| 7.R-KN1 | N-B4 |

Contrast White's consistent and firm development with the second player's wild rantings.

- | | |
|----------|-------|
| 8.R-N5 | Q-R6 |
| 9.P-Q4!? | |

Naturally B-B1 wins a piece, but this move would undevelop a piece, while White has an eye on history.

- | | |
|----------|------|
| 9..... | N-N5 |
| 10.RxPch | B-K2 |

Black develops another piece, but only against his will.

- | | |
|---------|-----|
| 11.N-N5 | QxP |
|---------|-----|

Once again the Queen is forced to move. Morphy fears not the Black attack, as obviously it cannot succeed, being composed of only two pieces.

- | | |
|----------|--------|
| 12.BxPch | K-B1 |
| 13.Q-R5 | Q-NBch |
| 14.K-K2! | P-Q3 |
| 15.RxB! | B-N5ch |
| 16.K-Q3 | N-B3 |

Only now does Black see the fault off his planned BxQ, as R-K8 mate follows. This was all seen by White, of course.

- | | |
|----------|------|
| 17.B-K3! | Q-N6 |
|----------|------|

If the Rook is taken, then White really wins quickly, the Black queen being out of play.

- | | |
|---------|-------|
| 18.HxP! | |
|---------|-------|

For if BxQ, N-K6 mate

- | | |
|---------|--------|
| 18..... | NxQ!?? |
|---------|--------|

A noble effort which might have worked against a total idiot.

- | | |
|---------|--------|
| 19.KxN | N-B4ch |
| 20.K-B4 | NxBch |
| 21.K-N3 | Q-B7 |

Apparently Black thought he had a perpetual. Now QxRP is very fine, as it doesn't even allow a check, but the move played is quite sufficient also.

- | | |
|---------|---------|
| 22.QxB | QxPch |
| 23.K-R3 | Resigns |

A quick statistical runthrough - Moves.

White	Black
King - 6	King - 1
Pawns - 4	Pawns - 2
Queen - 2	Queen - 7
Rooks - 5	Rooks - 0(!)
Knights - 3	Knights - 8
Bishops - 3	Bishops - 2

It should be noted that all the black pieces which came out into the game and didn't move around a lot were wiped off. White clearly knew where to put his pieces.

The next game is less beautiful, but not less amusing.

Mate can only be avoided by fantastic material loss.

Both these games show similar traits in the way in which Black was defeated. Who else but Morphy could have played thusly??

Looking at this position, one could quite justifiably conclude that black has nothing for his pawn. So, he leaved his bishop hanging for a few moves in order to 'mix it up'. White prepares to capture the intruder, but when he does, finds that he has miscalculated!

POSTAL

POSTAL DIRECTOR
DICK PARSONS
1305 43rd N.E. #511
SEATTLE WA 98105

Throughout history Northern Barbarians have ripped off their richer Southern neighbors. With this in mind I returned to the scene in the San Francisco area to defend my championships. Last year I won the Monterrey Open and the Stammer Memorial. (Tying with David Bloem). In addition fortune favored me also in a small Berkeley tournament.

Upon arrival in early June I found a great deal of chess activity in Berkeley. For example the Sunday I got there most of the big boys were playing in a tournament at the Loft Tavern. The owner sponsored the tournament putting up several hundred dollars in cash prizes in addition to furnishing free food and beer to the players. I wish I had gotten there earlier. About a week later the T.D. Alan Benson drafted me to judge which games should receive the Brillancy prizes.

Several masters (John Grefe, Dennis Fritzinger and a fellow Northwesterner Dennis Waterman) had just produced a tournament book of the second Lone Pine Tournament. This is a fine book I recommend to all tournament players. Support Western Chess!

The first week in Berkeley I was invited to play in a Masters training tournament. Jim Tarjan and John Grefe headed a strong field. So the Northern warrior was to enter battle directly. In the first two rounds I defeated Grefe and Craig Barnes, the last being a very promising player. Then I played Tarjan, a twenty year old master who is destined for big things.

McCormick vs Tarjan
White Black

- 1. P-Q4 N-EB3
- 2. P-QB4 P-KN3

Last year at Lone Pine he played 2...P-QB4 and won after a very tense game in which I did not make the most of my chances.
