NORTHWEST CHESS

is published monthly by the WASHINGTON CHESS FEDERATION a non-incorporated affiliate of the United States Chess Federation. By cooperative agreements with BRITISH COLUMBIA CHESS FEDERATION and the OREGON CHESS FEDERATION, these organizations recognize this magazine as Their "official" publication and contribute information and material concerning chessic matters in their respective areas. However, while full voting membership in both the WCF and OCF includes a subscription to $\frac{NWC}{OP}$ full membership in BCCF makes a subscription to $\frac{NWC}{OP}$ optional. Therefore, with respect to OCF and WCF, this magazine will continue to make available space for all official matters. With respect to BCCF and Idaho, all news and contributions are, of course, welcome, but at times when overall space becomes limited, then the pages for these areas will generally reflect the current level of subscriber interest.

Next to last month in this post for me. Wish to thank all those you have helped with this publication over the last year or so. Special thanks to Phil Irwin, Hal Andrews the two Oregon Editors, Jon Berry B.C. Editor, Robert Karch, David Brown, Bruce Bailey, Kathy Resing, Kathy Miller, Gary Ault, John Ward George Priebe and many more. Hope all of you plus many new helpers will support the new editor who ever that person is.

Derson is.

Welcome Ken Pitzgerald to the staff nas Oregoni
Editor. Give him material you Oregon players, organizers:
Also welcome to the staff Ed Kivi who will bring us back to a method we had in the past, self adhering address label printed by computor at Sun Life in Olympia.

DON'T SEND HIM ANY CHANGES OF ADDRESS OR MONEY, still send that to Yakima until further notice.

No Oregon Open Crosstable this issue but Robert Karch reports 142 players with IM Arthur Dake, Yasser Seirawan and Wells scored 58-8, to tie for first.

and Wells scored $5\frac{1}{2}-\frac{1}{2}$, to tie for first. Oregon Jr Open is set for late November. WCF hopes to hold Northwest Junior in late December, more details on this next month. Appears WCF will sponsor the Washington Open in 75.

BE SURE TO VOTE. I left the back side of the ballot blank this year, left more time to get it mailed and put a dues increase to be voted upon on the ballot all in hopes more people will vote this year. Any those that get NWC can vote but all that do can vote on atleast some issues. Most important of those is the new editor of course.

If clubs will send in the information it is time to print a new listing of club meeting times. All clubs are asked to send this information and any other information about club activities, names of officers etc. Would like to be able to provide you with information about BC Open that is Oct 12-14 but none was sent in other than the date.

BE SURE TO RENEW AHEAD YOUR USCF DUES, WCF ONES FOR

BE SURE TO RENEW AHEAD YOUR USCF DUES, WCF ONES FOR THAT MATTER. USCF DUES INCREASE GOES INTO EFFECT ON 1/1/75. Russell W. Miller

OCTOBER 1974 RATING LIST

EVENTS RATED FOR THE SEPTEMBER NWC

Wash. Junior Open; Wenatchee Spring Open; Wash. Junior Championship; Central Wash. Open; Viking Open; Rowles 4 - Samsel O; Evergreen Empire Open and Reserves; Donaldson 6 - Blachly 0; Sunfair Open; Eugene Chess Club Open and Boosters; Unnamed, Undated Oregon event and Reserves; Collyer 3 - Kirkpatrick 1; Kingsgate Knights' Fourth Open; 1974 Oregon Championships: Mens', Womens', Classes A, B, C, D, Novices; Allen Thompson 3 1/2 - Samsel 1/2.

EVENTS RATED FOR THE OCTOBER NAC

Spokane Summer Open; Seattle Southend Chess Room (SCR) Tornado July 13; SCR Novice; SCR Tornado July 27; Inland Empire Open; Seattle Seafair Open; Bloch 3 - Sundstrom 3; SCR Tornado August 10; Emerald Empire Open; Caissa Open; Randy Grant 2 1/2 - Duncan 1 1/2; Pupols 5 - Spiegel 3; Spokane Indian Summer Quadrangulars Sections 1A, 1B, 1C, 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D.

The list is the Quarterly semi-biggie; it contains all players active in any event rated in the last three months.

Apologies if the list is a little less legible than usual. Technical problems forced me to do things a bit different this month.

Special mention department: Watch out for Mark Lawrence, all you Seattle players. As noted in last month's column Mark is coming on strong; he went from a published 1645 last time to 2029 this time - congratulations, Mark!

Confidential to PE, Tacoma: You raise an excellent point. I see no reason for your rating drop to 2066 and will restore your 2097 effective next time. unless I can figure out what happened. For now I have to blame it on the still undeciphered errors and confusion in the July list.

Re that July list, my best guess is that somehow all the events got run thru twice, or possibly some June events got mixed in and rated twice that way. It is unlikely that I'll ever know for sure.

Bruce Bailey

WASHINGTON CHESS PETERATION

Annual Meeting 1 September, 1974

- The meeting was called to order by Vice-President Larry Allyn at 7:30. Other officers in attendence were: Russell W. Miller, NWC Editor Stephen Thomas, Treasurer Robert A. Karch, Postal Director S. M. C. Duncan, Secretary
- The Secretary moved that the minutes of the previous annual meeting be adopted as published in NWC for October, 1973. The motion was unanimously adopted.
- The assembly moved immediately to nominations for the various elective of-fices of the Washington Chess Federa-

WCF President Russell W. Miller (S. Allyn) Robert A. Karch (D. Hill)

WCF Vice-President Larry Allyn (K. Miller)

Matthew B. Edwards (Duncan)

WCF Secretary S. M. C. Duncan (G. Ault)

WCF Treasurer

Russell W. Miller (E. Kivi) Michael A. Mulford (D. Polich)

NWC Editor Dan Bailey (K. Miller) Duane J. Polich (T. Grant) Hal Andrews WCF Tournament Director Gary Ault (R. Karch)

USCF State Directors (#3Directors)
Gary Ault (D. Polich) Stephen Christopher (S. Thomas) Dave Collyer (K. Miller)
Terry Grant (G. Ault)
Robert A. Karch (K. Miller)
Russell W. Miller (S. Allyn) Duane J. Polich (Duncan) George L. Priebe (R. Karch)

4. Items of Old Business:

A. Stephen Thomas, gave a treasurer's report supplemental to the pub-lished report of July, 1974. He relayed the following relevant figures:

Assets: $ 2,536 (Both accounts)
Savings: $ 565 Assets: $ 565
Savings: $ 565
Notes: $ 645 (Receivable)
Therest: $ 35. 77 (Recievable)

Printing costs: $ 168.39 HSB Trust: $ 36.40

Equity: NWC: $ 4,131.92 WCF: $ 901.91

b Net Income (Last 10 months) NWC: $ 28.81 WCF: $ 148.99

The outcome of this is that there has been a financial improvement experienced by both NWC and WCF. Liability has been decreased and some equity exists in several accounts.

- B. Robert A. Karch gave a report on both postal chess and on tournament activity in Washington. Interest in postal chess is increasing; 25 new members have been enrolled since august, 1973. Karch reported that tournament activity has decreased since the July closure of the ACS Seattle facility.
- C. Stephen Thomas gave a report on memberships and subscriptions supplemental to Karch's report. Subscriptions are decreasing and have stabilized at a-bout 1100. Oregon and British Columbia submissions have been drepping off and at present only 35 canadians subscribe to the magazine, indicating a general lack of interest in NWC.

The following are the figures on WCF memberships and NWC subscriptions: (Sept. 18 - Aug. 7)

> Subs (years) Memberships

448 Adults: 616 Adults: 177 339 Juniors: Juniors: High School: Family:

High school memberships seem to be accelerating.

5. Items of New Business:

All new business concerned propositions for the annual mail ballot.

PROPOSITION #1. (Inland Empire Chess Club; amendment by Gary Ault)

" Resolved, that affiliate clubs receive a 10% rebate on all new memberships collected at Northwest-rated tournaments."

Passed by the assembly. 14 - 9.

PROPOSITION #2. (Russell Miller; amendment by Duncan)

"Club affiliate dues shall be incresed to $10 per year, and be made mandatory for all clubs and organizers who wish the official sanction of WCF."

Passed by the assembly, 19 - 4.

PROPOSITION #3. (R. Karch; amendment by R. Karch.)

"Resolved: that the annual alternates cup swiss tournament, held annually in conjunction with the state championship, be changed to a Challenger's Cup, the winner of which will be automatically seeded into the next years state cham-pionship. If the tornament results in a tie, a playoff match will determine the winner. Failure to appear will forfeit the position in the annual state championship."

Passed by the assembly, 19 - 3

PROPOSITION #4. (Russell Miller)

"In the future, the WCF annual meeting will be held in September at a time and place to be determined by the WCF officers no later than the June 15th prior to the afformentioned meeting and announced in the July issue of Northwest Chess.

Passed unanimously.

PROPOSITION #5. (Russell Miller)

"Resolved, that a local tournament di-rector certification program be instituted for Northwest Tournament Directors."

Passed by the assembly, 19 - 3

PROPOSITION #6. (Russell Miller)

"Resolved, that the annual mail ballot for the electmon of officers and changes in by-laws be eliminated, and that all matters before the annual meeting be resolved by votes cast by those present."

Withdrawn by the sponsor.

PROPOSITION #7. (R. Karch)

"Resolved: That for any Northwest-rated tournament, the cash prizes for any lower class or rating groupswill never exceed the amounts awarded for any higher class or rating group. They may be equal or less but they can never be higher. This rule applies regardless of the number of players at any event."

Withdrawn by the sponsor. (After discussion on the floor) PROPOSITION #8. (S. M. C. Duncan)

"If a player forfeits his game without telling the tournament director and allows himself to be paired for a round he will not play, he must be rated as a loss by the rating director and rating points awarded to his opponent."

Unanimously defeated by the assembly.

PROPOSITION #9. (L. Allyn)

"Resolved: All clubs or organizers may retain 10% of all monies collected for Northwest Chess."

Passed by the assembly, 15 - 6.

PROPOSITION # 10 (Russell Miller)

Resolved: that the dues for adult membership in WCF (and Idaho and B. C. equivalencies) be increased to six dollars, $1.50 of which will revert to WCF with the rest to be put into the Northwest Chess subsciption fund."

Passed by the assembly. 14 - 6

- George Priebe offered a motion to suspend the rules for the purpose of rescinding Proposition #1. The proposition, which required a 2/3 vote, was defeated, 12 - 9. Not having received the necessary 2/3, the motion was defeated and Proposition One reported to the annual mail ballot.
- 7. The chair heard a motion for adjournment, which was unanimously adopted by the assembly; the meeting was adjourned at approximately 10:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Steven M. C. Dincare S. M. C. Duncan

Secretary, WCF

(NWC EDITORS NOTE: I have removed three names from those nominated for officers as they asked me to do so, Bruce Bailey for President, Gary Ault for V-P and Liz Ault for Treasurer, have two statements printed in this issue and third over the phone, to do this.)

STATEMENT BY ROBERT A. KARCH

I did not choose to run against Russell W. Miller as WCF President, but neither will I back down. It was expected that I would be opposed by incumbent Bruce W. Bailey (who has since withdrawn) and that Miller would quit as Editor and try for Treasurer. At the WCF annual meeting, at the very last minute, Miller decided to run for both positions.

Russell Miller has said in conversation that there is not much difference between us for chess. I do not agree. In personal effort we expend, in sincerity, and in willingness to accept responsibility - probably not much. But in personal style and way of doing things, yes. The voters must decide which they prefer.

When I was Editor of NORTHWEST CHESS from January through July 1973, the innovations were sometimes termed "controversial." However, there was an undercurrent of excitement as we tried to go forward, and the record will show that WCF memberships and NWC subscriptions increased during that period. When my successor Russell Miller took over, renewals fell off and the trend has been downward ever since.

I favor the clubs as the backbone of organized chess, and while Editor of NWC I tried to publish a current listing. Miller as Editor soon gave up on it and now there is no list at all to help the newcomer find a local club or place to play chess.

I prefer long-range planning in the pursuit of broad objectives, but these object-ives need to be carefully worked out in meetings with the WCF Officers and other interested persons.

We must work hard for Junior Chess. be teaching chess classes again this Fall, and I am also directing the Seattle Metro High School League - which had 18 teams last season. I do not believe that my opponent is doing the equivalent work with Junior chess, although it is true that he lives in a smaller community and may not have the same opportunity. Still, the efforts that I made appear to have borne fruit, if you will note the comment by the WCF Treasurer that high school memberships appear to be accelerating.

In closing, I believe that this will again be a close election. I urge my supporters to please mail in their ballot - we will need every vote!

I have decided to withdraw from the race for WCF President this year in favor of Rusty Miller. I urge my supporters to vote for Rusty.

Bruce Bailey

STATEMENT BY CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT- Russell W. Miller

I was asked to run for President by three or four people just before WCF Annual meeting. One is a present WCF officer, one a future officer and you will note Bruce Bailey has dropped out of the race and supports me. Should I win both the office of President and Treasurer I will not have two votes on the officers board (President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Tournament Director and Northwest Chess Editor) as the by-laws change passed last year allows for the Secretary to become a voting member of the board of officers when two elective offices are held by the same person.

As far as programs, I want WCF to incorporate and as non-profit if possible, Robert Karch's idea of last year for a WCF Handbook is an idea I would like to see happen, would want to continue the practice of putting out for bid the normally run WCF tournaments. Those events which have a long history should be held every year. I would encourage organizers and players to help promote chess, getting together with school officials to run school and city wide tournaments, see that more tournaments are setup in other parts of Washington, maybe like my chess to the people program of a few years ago when most every county seat in the State had a tournament. Walla Walla, Tri-Cities area should have some tournaments.

We need to go after commercial sponsorship of all types of chess events and this I would do as President. The board of officers should meet more often than they have in the past. The board should setup a budget for the year and review it from time to time. I have been President of WCF before and do have some training in running meetings. Where I work I have a WATS line phone on which calls can be made during off business hours all over the State of Washington at no charge, this has been used a lot in the past by me to help promote chess in State of Washington.

We need to try to get BCCF back in with us in full support of $\underline{\text{NWC}}$ and I would work toward that end. My work with Jude Acers has dropped off a lot in last few months and without having to be Editor of $\underline{\text{NWC}}$ I expect to have a lot more time to promote chess. My wife and I like to travel and I can see myself in the near future being able to travel to a lot more chess events than I have for the last year. I ask your support.

Russell W. Miller

STATEMENT FOR PRESIDENT

I support Russell W. Miller for President Larry Allyn

STATEMENT FOR VICE-PRESIDENT- MATT EDWARDS

I am running for the office of Vice President of WCF. All votes cast for me are sincerely appreciated. What I support, High School Chess, a tournament director certification system, mandatory affiliation of directors who wish to have their tournaments rated. What I do not support: the dues increase, the rebate or 10% retainer for organizers who collect money for Theel that the essential difference between my opponent and myself is that I will try to be more active than he was.

MATT EDWARDS

STATEMENT FOR VICE-PRESIDENT BY LARRY ALLYN

I would appreciate your voting for me. Larry Allyn

I have decided to withdraw my name from the Vice Presidental race for various reasons, I do however, ask support in the running for state Delegate.

GARY AULT, Director Southend Chess Room

ELECT MULFORD TREASURER

I am well qualified for the office as an accounting major. I have done considerable bookwork for my employer with no difficulties. In addition, I have no conflict of interest, while one of my opponents is a candidate for President (and USCF director) and the other is wife of the Tournament Director. There are not very many voting positions in the WCF Cabinet, and to allow one person to hold two positions is not wise. Two heads are better than one.

Last year several resolutions were passed but nothing done about them. As an officer I would do my best to institute any passed proposals. In particular I will seek to institute #5, assuming it passes, and last years tournament conflicts resolution. As Treasurer I guarantee the following: competent bookkeeping, no conflict of interest, an active officer, and prompt introduction of those proposals you eupport on this ballot. If you are interested in these things I urge you to vote for me. Michael A. Mulford

PLEASE VOTE

Last year your decisions were made by 45 Washington, 8 Oregon, and 38C members. There are many important issues on this ballot. You have more Than a right to vote--you have a duty to vote.

STATEMENT BY CANDIDATE FOR TREASURER- Russell W. Miller

If I win both Treasurer and President post I will NOT have two votes on WCF board of officers, the Secretary will become a voting member, should that happen. I have some training in accounting. I have been treasurer of WCF before and in fact I am acting treasurer now (Steve Thomas could not wait until late October to turn over the books to the new Treasurer because of the press of school work).

I want to see WCF setup a budget and the officers review it form time to time, to do this will mean having a very active treasurer which I plan to be. I wonder if a college student will have the time. Many of the things I say in my statement about running for President hold true for my running for Treasurer also, phone line, budget, travel more. With a new editor the plan is still to print NWC and mail at from Yakima, it will be easier to pay the bills connected with this if the Treasurer post is in Yakima. I plan to arrange for a surety bond if I am elected (in my work I am bonded now). The plan unless changed by new board of officers is for my wife to be membership secretary, so the money for dues and subscriptions would continue on in the present manner if I am elected Treasurer. I ask for your support.

Russell W. Miller

STATEMENT FOR EDITOR

I support Dan Bailey for Editor Larry Allyn

SUPPORT DAN BAILEY FOR NWC EDITOR

I feel Dan will be able to do a fine job and has the support of a number of Tacoma area players who can help him, and I will help also to the best that I can from long distance. RUSSELL W. MILLER

I'm a candidate for editor of NWC because here, for me, is a wonderful oppurtinity to combine business and pleasure. At 23, nine-tenths the way to an English degree, I welcome this chance to gain practical experience in jounalism. A player in many enjoyable tournaments over the last eight years, I want to continue the chess life seeking encounters and discussions that will result in pages. I am considering the idea of CLandR-type interviews; I plan to suscribe to a variety of chess publications for games and news; I've already written for permission to reprint an entertaining chess science-fiction story; so far I've looked over the first $ik years of our magazine (begun in 1947) culling games and miscellany for inclusion in a "Play It Again, Sam" column. The challenge of assembling varied and interesting material will be difficult and wearing, I realize. If you elect me your editor I will

I believe Dan Bailey is the most responsible man for the job. He is both chess-knowledgable and serious about this position, the two most important prerequisites for the job.

do my best to grow into the job

Paul Eggers

I, Neil Salmon, say that Dan Bailey is very qualified for this job as he has the ambition and right attitude for such an important position!

I believe Dan Bailey has good ideas and good interest. He will be very good for $\frac{NW}{Chess}$.

Eric Tangborn

I think Dan Bailey would make a good and responsible Editor for Northwest Chess. This young man will make a fine contribution as he is sincere in his desire to do a good job as Editor.

John Ward

For the position of NORTHWEST CHESS editor Dear Voters,

As a candidate for the editor of NWC, I feel that NWC is one of the finest chess publications in the country. As editor I hope to keep up this distinction by keeping the balance of instuctive games and entertaining games, crosstables and tournament reports, cartoons and other entertainment articles, the problem column and articles on improving one's game, the letters to the editor, etc. Which has made Northwest Chess what it is. It is sad to see the subscription rate dropping, and I hope that B.C. and Idaho will start to encourage thier members to subscribe to NWC so that WCF may keep on publishing a magazine that hold's the readers interest no matter where he lives in the Northwest. I feel that as editor, I will be able to improve the looks of the magazine, be able to solicit games from the masters and also to interview them. I would also like to see more regional news and possibly a column from Larry Evans or some other grandmaster. Having been a resident of the Northwest for all my life and a subscriber for 3 years, I look forward to be able to serve the magazine in the editor's post.

Duane J. Polich

Dear Editor;

Some notes on the copy of the WCF 1974 annual meeting minutes mailed to me as a participant at that meeting. I will take related propositions in groups. PROP. #1,9. It was my understanding at the meeting that both of these would include language using the term "holdback" to describe funds held back by affiltate clubs. Also, that the right to take these "holdbacks" would depend upon the affiliate issuing the WCF membership card at the time the membership was taken. (Parenthetically, this would mean that each affiliate would need blank membership cards issued to them when they paid their affiliation dues.) The IECC board of directors are in favor of both of these propositions and are urging all of our members to vote for both of them in the hope that at least one will pass.

PROP. # 2. The IECC board also favors this proposition as being complementary to # 1 & #9.

PROP. # 3. Good idea! PROP. # 4. A matter of mechanics. Good idea! PROP. # 5. I as an experienced TD, and Edward Rodriguez as a newcomer to this calling both think so some certification program is needed for Northwest tournament directors.

tournament directors.

PROP. #7. These kinds of problems would be taken care of by passage of Proposition #5.

of by passage of Proposition #5.
PROP. # 8. Certified TD's ha we more authority behind them to impose penalties against this kind of skunk animal as provided in USCF tournament regulations.
PROP. # 10. I personally feel that building a fund in WCF treasury for sponsoring state events is a good idea for our chess community as a whole.

Sincerely, N. Priobe George W. Priebe

AN EXHORTATION TO THE VOTERS By S. M. C. Duncan

As an uncontested candidate for office, I have the opportunity to make endorsements without fear of retribution from either the voters or the other candidates. I can hardly pass up a chance to practice that oft-mentioned but rarely practiced political virtue of candor, and will therefore offer my recomendations for the board of officers I would most prefer to see lead the WCF in the coming year.

For president, ROBERT A. KARCH is the best choice. Admittedly, he is not as able to help the WCF as he was a year ago, when we should have elected him. But he has lost none of the enthusiasm which helped him transform chess in this state into what it is today, and we can count on him to bring twenty-five years of examperience as a player and organizer to the job. No one was more surprised than I was when he lost the election last year. All I can suggest is that more people weast of the mountains bother to vote this time a-round.

The race for editor of Northwest Chess is a hard one to pick this year. Neither of the two Washington candidates has made any significant contributions to the magazine, so it is impossible to choose between them on that score. However, I feel that DUANE J. POLICH will do an adequate jow as editor. Since Duane will not be going to school or traveling as much in the future as he has in the past, he will be able to devote the majority of his spare time to the magazine. For an example of his journalistic style and some of his ideas for the coming year, see other parts of this issue.

NWC BCT PAGE 305

For treasurer, I support MICHAEL A.
MULFORD for several reasons. First, Mike is an accounting major at Seattle Pacific College and therefore qualified for this sort of post. Secondly, he will be much closer to the president if either Karch or Bailey wins, which I think would enhance efficiency. Thirdly, I think the election of Mulford would prevent any problems which might occur by electing the same candidate to both the offices of President and treasurer, especially as this would concentrate both the executive and treasury power in the hands of an isolated individual.

As far as the ballot issues go, I support all of them except Proposition #10. I think that this is a redundant proposal and better handled by Proposition #1. We ought not to give a rebate for those members who are likely to renew their subscriptions in any case. While it may be true that the rate of renewal is not high, even if there is only a solid core of two hundred subscribers, NWC would be literally giving $100.00 away to tournament organizers. There is obviously more incentive and benefit to be derived from offering rebates for new members only, instead of simply collecting a fee to process the renewals.

I also support the TD Certification Program and the mandatory affiliation of Northwest organizers with WCF. For any product to become saleable, some quality control needs to be in effect, even if no immediate abuses exist to be remedied. Also, such programs can be beneficial to the greater efficiency of tournament scheduling and operation. If the CCA tries to hold any of it's notoriously shoddy tournaments in the Northwest, these safeguards will help insure that the necessary standards for tournament conditions will be upheld.

Finally, I think that the dues increase is warranted if WCF is to be adequately equipped to institute the afformentioned programs. To vote for increased services while not increasing the economic support necessary to acheiving that end is a self-contradiction.

The assumption of easy victory is the only hope of an organized minority in a democratic election. Add to that the usual lethargy with which the electorate respondes to the call for decisions and the electoral process itself becomes a sham and no more representative than an oligarchy. I do not feel that the results of last year's annual mail ballot were really representative of the wishes of the majority of the members of WCF, at least on the west side of the mountains. Perhaps those of you who agree with me will make sure that the "sure victory" that they expect will become a reality.

AGAINST PROPOSITION #1
The theory of this proposition is that it will encourage affiliates fo seek out new players. I contend this won't happen. These clubw don't have sufficient influence to get that many new members. The gain will not compensate for the 10% loss of those who would have joined anyway. The sole beneficiary will be the affiliate, not WCF.

Michael A. Mulford

AGAINST PROPOSITION #1

I can not support any rebate as the financial picture of $\underline{\text{NWC}}$ is not that good. I could see a 10 ¢ holdback if director gave out the membership card so membership secretary did not have to mail it.

Russell W. Miller

FOR PROPOSITION #2
If you vote for number one vote for #2. RW Miller

FOR PROPOSITION #4

Now we must hold our annual meeting on Labor Day weekend at WCF Open. This will allow the officers to change the meeting to some other weekend in September in case Oregon Open continues to be a big guaranteed prize fund event that draws a lot of Washington players who might otherwise attend WCF meeting. Russell Miller

FOR PROPOSITION #5
The USCF has a program to protect players and to have something to withdraw from directors who do not fullfill the duties as they should be. Events would probably get sent in for rating sooner, crosstables appear in MWC more uptodate with a certification program for open tournaments. Russell W. Miller

FOR PROPOSITION #5
In keeping with USCF policy, we should insure that all organizers are qualified and meet Northwest standards. There have been many examples where this has not occurred. I hope that with this proposal we can also institute the tournament conflict resolution you passed last year. With proposal #2 and this proposal we can have better tournaments in the Northwest.

Michael A. Mulford

AGAINST PROPOSION #9
Expanding NWC is a worthwhile aim, but like proposition 1 this merely rewards organizers for no effort.
It will also reduce NWC income. Michael A. Mulford

AGAINST #9 Same reasons as against #1, $\frac{\text{NWC}}{\text{Russell Miller}}$

FOR PROPOSITION #10
I hope WCF officers will setup a budget and this will allow for there to be more money in the budget to spent on chess promotion like WCF tournaments with guaranteed prize funds, maybe a Master event with a tournament book, larger prizes for State Championships etc. Also this only effects Adult WCF rate so Juniors should be in favor of this. "IT HAPPENED AT THE WCF OPEN"

(Humor or Grief? - It all depends on which side of the board you are on!)

By Larry Swan

I can offer a lot of excuses for what happened in my game during Round 6 of the WGF OPEN - - Let's see: 1. I was commuting all the way from Bremerton everyday - but so were Walt Gentala, Phil Baumgaertner, and Alan Torkelson; 2. I was tired after hard and difficult play during the first five rounds but so were all the other players, including my opponent in Round 6. Oh well, I guess it just boils down to the fact that Dave Lawrence plays better

A very interesting occurrence is that before Round 5 I was listening to Alan Torkelson tell Walt Gentala about a game printed in the Seattle P.I. for Sunday, September 1, 1974 in the "Lyman On Chess" column. It seems that in a recent World Chess Olympics game in Nice, France, White chose to open with a King's Cambit and then became the victim of his own errors in the opening, as follows:

RIGAUD - COOPER

1. P-K4 P-K4

2. P-KB4

3. PXKP?? Q-R5ch. 4. P-KN3 QXKPch.

5. K-B2 B-QB4ch.

6. Resigns

Everyone in the group had a good chuckle or loud laugh (depending on their personality) over that game, and I walked away convinced that I would never fall into such opening errors! After all, everyone, except of course the loser in the game above, knows, and follows, the principles of good sound opening play!!

Well, my first error of the day was that in Round 5 I used the Stonewall against an expert of the Stonewall and promptly lost in short order. My next error of the day was to choose Black when I won the toss for choice of color for Round 6. That was two errors. -- They say three's a charm

"What goes on in the mind of a loser?" White: David Lawrence 1543 Black: Larry Swan 1559 WCF OPEN, September 2, 1974

(The notes reflect the thoughts of the Loser during the game, as closely as his befuddled mind could recall the next day.)

1. N-KB3

ROUND 6

A very normal opening move, which can turn out to be a Reti, a King's Indian Attack, a Colle, etc. Let's see now, P-Q4 has usually gotten me through this type of thing before. Everything I read lately comments on how important the center is, so P-Q4 ought to keep in line with that important concept.

P-Q4

1. 2. P-Q4

Oh boy! Maybe he intends to play a Colle! If he does, I have some surprises in store for him. Okay, here we go -

Surprise! ?! What do I do now?! Let's see -If only his Knight were on QB3 I could sail happily into a Gruenfeld Defense. What should I play? What should I play? I seem to recall that either P-K3 or P-QB3 are considered normal moves for this pawn formation, but I haven't studied those well enough to feel comfortable with them yet. Maybe I will be lucky and he will let me transpose this thing into a Gruenfeld!? Well, it's only a game, so - let's try it -

SOLUTIONS FOR JULY: No.149 (RIDDERBUSCH)
1.Sa6 (2.aSb4) A good flight-giving key with several nice lines. Tho there's no true unified theme, the light setting and construction are good. No.150 (DINWIDDIE) 1.Bf1 waiting. The set 1...Pxe4, 2.Pc4 is changed in the solution:
1...Pxc4 2.Bc4. Being a complete block in the 1...Prc4 2.Bc4. Being a complete block in the set and actual play, this problem is a mutate, i.e. one or more changes. Also, all mates are models. No.151 (MacDOUGALL) 1.Pc8=Q (2.Qxd3). Set: 1...Ke2, 2.Qxd3 and 1...Qd4+/d5+/d6+.2.RxQ The promotion key is necessary for there to be set models after the set play. All mates are models except the threat. No.152 (LIDER) 1.Pd4 The set mates 1...Sxe6/Exg4/Pxe5, 2.Qe4/Qxg4/Pxe5 are all changed after the key to 2.Qd3/Bd3/ Rg5 are all changed after the key to 2.Qd3/Bd3/ Rxe5. This is not a mutate since no mates are provided for random moves of the BSe8. A skillful rendering and probably the best this month! Beginning composers will note that the WPc2 stops duals after 1... Sre6, 2.Qd3 (Qc2?). A good try was 1.Qd5? Brg4! No.153 (BROWN) 1.Sg4 (2.Rxc6) Again, set mates for 1... Bd6/Re5, 2. Be6/Sxe5 are half-pin mates and are changed to 2. Sxe3/gSxe5 after the key. A serious aesthetic flaw is the non-use of the WSf7 after the

No.154 (TAFFS) 1.0-0! waiting. 1...Pxh2+, 2.Kf2 and 1...Pg2, 2.Bf2. A very tough "nut" One solver commented "I for many to crack. tried all 41 possible moves and gave up" but he didn't see the 42nd! Castling (always is playable unless proven illegal) has often been used as a trick device, but not here. used as a trick device, but not here. 0-0 takes a flight but also ruins the S/R battery. No.155 (HOLLADAY) Left: 1.Pc3 Bd6, 2.Pc2 Bxf4, 3.Kc3 Bd6, 4.Kb2 Ba3+, 5.Ka1 Kb3, 6.Pc1=S+ Kc2, 7.Sa2 Bb2≠ Right: 1.Kh8 Kg6, /2.Rg1+ Kxh6, 3.Rg3 Pxg3, 4.Ph2 Pg4, 5.Ph1=B Pg5, 6.Bd5 Pg6, 7.Bg8 Pg7≠ NWC now holds the record for the longest one-row asymmetric helpmates in existence!! tence!!!

No.156 (KUBICEK) 1.Sxa2+ Kd3, 2.Qc2+ Pxc2≠ Quite a sense of humor in having to kill the set mate 1... Ral = but white has no waiting move! Unfortunately, there was a cook by 1.Qd5+ Kc3, 2.Sc6 Ra1≠ Both these 5 point solutions were found by only two solvers. The cook seems easily eliminated by adding a BPe6 and WPe5.

This month's collection has a max total of 36, with No.172 worth 7 points for the full ten-move solution.

1973~75 PROBLEM

COMPOSING TOURNEY

This composing tourney is open to all composers of original problems, including those already published in this column since its beginning in 1973.

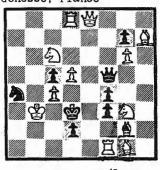

In three sections: TWO-MOVERS will be judged by Eric Hassberg; THREE-MOVERS will be judged by Edgar Helladay (including more-movers); HELPMATES & SELFMATES will be judged by Irwin L. Stein. Hassberg and Holladay are both International FIDE Judges and Stein is currently an editor for "The Problemist".

This contest will be announced in many foreign publications. NWC readers will soon see an even higher level of quality as well as a wider range of composers and ideas. Of course, this editor will work with any NWC reader who wants to try for publishable originals.

EDITORIAL

Very little news has been submitted to your BC Editor this month, so very little will appear.

The Labour Day Open.

very little will appear.
The Labour Day Open, directed by Ray & Eunice Kerr and Lynn Stringer, was a moderate success. Brian McLaren took the top honours, while the "regulars" were away in Winnipeg at the Pan American Championship.

Brian seems to be making steady progress. We hope to see his name soon in the list of 'Top 50 Canadians'.

Incidentally, the CFC rating list shows 10 BC players in the top 50: 1. Suttles 2466; 3. Biyiasas 2400; 8. Berry 2269; 14. Macskasy 2228; 20. Harper 2192; 25. Zuk 2163; 35. Hill 2129; 37. Kerr 2123; 40. Williams 2120; 50 Schionsby 2102 (departed for Sweden).

BC WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Originally planned to be a 5 round Swiss system, the 1974 BC Women's Championship was changed to a 5 game match when only two players showed. Fortunately, the tournament turned out to be representative, as the players were the two highest rated in the province. The winner was Mrs. Lynn Stringer of Victoria, who came back from a O-2 deficit to win 3-2. Mrs. Bea Snelling of Smithers was the victim of Mrs. Stringer's finishing kick.

Von Sarac originated the idea for a Women's Championship, and directed the event for the Smithers Chess Club.

The king of the chess study, A Troitsky, even at the very beginning of his chess creation, produced that splendid gem, #1. His solution is very spectacular. 1. Bhó¢ Kg8 2. g7 Kf7 3. g8(Q)¢!! It appears that white is sacrificing his last hope, but... 3...Kxg8 4 Ke6 Kh8 5 Kf7 e5 6 Bg7 mate. A mate with the one remaining bishop calls forth admiration in our day, just as in his.

It is quite understandable that such a study would call forth multiple imitations I will demonstrate a few of the most interesting.

White to play and win 1. Bb7! (A fine introduction. Weaker is 1 Ba6?, which leads.only to a draw 1... Kc7 2 Kc5 d6¢ 3 Kd5 Kxb8 4 Kxd6 Ka8) 1... Kc7 2 Ba6! Kxb8 3 Kd6 Ka8 4 Kc7 d5 5 Bb7 mate. Mate, as with Troitsky, but on the other side.

That great master of composition L. Kubbel was also not left indifferent towards this study.

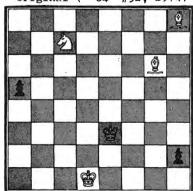

#3 L. KUBBEL 1929

White to play and win 1. Nb8! (in order to answer 1...Kxe5 with 2. Nxd7¢ and 3. Nxf8) 1...Bd6! 2. Bxd6 Kxd6 3. Kc4! Kc7 4. Kd5 Kxb8. Kubbel has allowed the doomed knight to voluntarily occupy the fatal square, thereby delineating the black king's path. 5. Kd6 Ka8 6 Kc? and 7 Bb7mate.

One can obtain a similar mate in the lower corner of the board. I have attempted to do this without exceeding the limitations of a miniature.

#4 A. MAXIMOVSKIKH Original ("64" #32, 1974)

White to play and win
The black pawn is threatening to queen with check, so strong measures are necessary. 1 Nd5¢! Kf3 2 Bh5¢ Ke4! (If ...
Kg2 3 Ne3¢ Kf2 4 Ng4¢, or 2...Kf2 Bd4¢ Kg2 4 Ne3¢) Now black counts on a positional draw - for example 3 Nf6¢ Kf4 4 Nd5¢ Ke4! 5. Nc3¢ Ke3! 6. Nd5¢ Ke4, etc. But 3. Nc3¢ Ke3! 4 Bd4¢! Kxd4 5 Ne2ch Ke3 6 Ng3 Kf2! 7 Nh1¢ Kg2 8 Ke2! (But not 8 Ke1 due to the loss of time after 8...a4 9 Ke2 a3!) 8...Kxh1 9 Kf1(2) a4 10 Bf3 mate. In this study white sacrificed two pieces to trap the black king in the corner.

By Duane J. Polich

SUPERFISH SWIMS TO THE EAST The Greyhound bus station looked friendly the morning of July 29th, as I whipped out my trusty Ameripass, which I had purchased two days earlier for the small sum of 165 dollars, and said "Portland please". 15 minutes later I found myself on a Greyhound non-stop Scenicruiser to Portland, Oregon, the first leg of this incredible 10,000 mile journey. Spending 30 minutes in the Rose City gave me enough time to grab a good old Herfy's hamburger, fries and coke, little did I realize that I would soon call this civilization. Soon I was on a Pacific Trailways bus on its way to Salt Lake City. Heading across Oregon I caught a last glimpse of the West as I knew it. Drowsiness soon overcame me and I fell asleep in a bed that I would be spending the next six nights in and except for the frequent stops during the night I managed to get a good rest.

We arrived in Salt Lake at 8:00 in the morning and for the next 8 hours I walked the streets of the "City of Mormons".

At 4:00 we left for Cheyenne, Wyoming where I transferred to Denver, Colorado. Arriving in Denver at 5:30 in the morning, when I found out that the next bus east left in 15 minutes. Oh, well, no time to see Denver 15 minutes. Oh, well, no time to see Denver.

Accross the plains of Colorado and Kansas we sped, which was a good thing because there was nothing to see anyway. Ending up in Lawrence, Kansas at 10:00 p.m. I spent the next 2 hours listening to the radio, as I waited for the bus to Tulsa, Oklahoma.
The bus finally came and often on bounts

The bus finally came and after an hour's wait continued on through Arkansas to NWC OCT PAGE 312

Memphis, Tennesee, from which I went to St. Louis and on to Chicago. Arriving there I spent the next hour walking around looking for the LaSalle Hotel, where the Chitago Chess Club is located, where the 1974 U.S. Championships were being held.

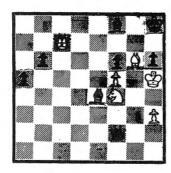

Walter Browne had just scored 9½ points to gain the title of U.S. Champion. Pal Benko and Larry Evans were a full point and hahf behind for a 2nd-3rd place tie. Having arrived on the last day of play, all that was left were the demonstration boards still red-hot from battle.

I continued my journey up through Detroit across the Canadian border and finally to the french speaking city of Montreal, Quebec, where after an hour of searching I located the Place Bonaventure, where the Canadian Open was now in progress.

5 grandmasters, 6 international masters and 415 others were battling it out for \$6000 in prize money, and 228 players struggling for \$1500 in the reserve section. Arriving on the scene during the 9th round. I discovered that out of or B.C. friends to the North, Jonathan Berry had succumbed to the mating attack of Bent Larsen, Bruce Harper was getting fried by C. Cuartas and our hero Duncan Suttles had reached an obscure position with L. Ljubojevic of Yugoslavia. The two grandmasters then got into time trouble and the pieces went flying, when the smoke had cleared the digrammed position was reached, Suttles has a forced mate but so does Ljubojevic and he has the move. In the meantime, Bruce Harper managed to swindle his way to a win and at the end of 9, Ljubojevic led with $8\frac{1}{2}$ points, Larsen had $7\frac{1}{2}$, Suttles had $7\frac{1}{2}$, Harper had $7\frac{1}{2}$ and Jon Berry had $6\frac{1}{2}$, I do not know what happened in the games of the other 2 grandmasters Hort and Quinteros.

Leaving Montreal I reentered the United States and ended up in New York City, one look and I got a ticket to "ashington D.C. where one look there and I soon found myself on an ancient Greyhound bus through the scenic rolling hills of Virginia, where I found peace in Roanoke and also the first meal in 24 hours. Two hours later I was on my way back to New York, where a change of busses put me on one going to Lancaster, Pa. After a 30 minute rest stop in the historic town of Philadelphia, we left for the Dutch countryside of Pennsylvania and the Amish town of Lancaster. Arriving at the bus station, I asked directions to Franklin and Marshall College, site of the 1974 U.S. Junior Open. "Oh just go down this street a half a block, turn right walk two blocks down and then left and walk about 7 blocks, you can't miss it." said the ticket agent. So I gathered up my suitcase full of Chess Courier magazines, my sleeping bag, coat and a radio and startedon the longest 9 block walk of my life. Finally stumbling onto the campus I located Franklin Hall where the tournament was being held. Putting my things down I looked around and saw D. Leo Stefurak and Yasser Sierawan walking through the door. Leo had been on the east coast for the past month, having come for the World Open, and then staying with his brother in Washington D.C. .

Yasser had come from Hawaii, where he was defeating everyone including the Hawaii state champion, to Seattle and then took the bus across the country to Washington D.C., where he met up with Leo and together they drove to Lancaster. We checked in and registered for our room, little did they know that we were putting three people in the room and paying for two. Since the first round did not begin until 7 we had time to unload Leo's car. Leo had about 20 chess books with him and as we were carrying them up to the room, somebody asked if that was all our opening analysis. "No" I replied " Just a little light reading". The 1st round we were all in the upper half so we got potzers and quickly fried them off. Chuck Johnson, also from Washington had won his game. After breakfast the next day, I went to the demonstration of "Chaos" the computer chess program, unfortunely by the time a terminal was free, the compater was overloaded, so I was unable to play the computer, "Shucks, I wanted to psych it out with h4 !". The next round I lost to Ralph Ginzburg, one of my two defeats in the tour-nament. That afternoon D. Leo and Yaz put up a challenge to any two man Siamese team. Michael Rohde, a master from New Jersey and 1974 High School Champion, and friend took. them on, for the stakes of a dollar per match. Leo and Yaz got crushed 3-0. But then they were given another chance and the stakes were raised to three dollars a match. This time the Seattle team came through winning 3-1 and by the time of the next round they were 9 dollars ahead. One wonders if losing the first match really was a hustle. The third round I got another fish and disposed of him quickly. That night the East vs West Siamese match continued and at 3:30 in the morning when it was detined to call its quits, the West lead by 21 dollars. The next day came round four and I got paired with my first expert Berry Bayus of Maryland. Presented below is the game "just for the laughs"

The next round I played an 1818 rated player from Tennesee, I got crunched in the opening but then a few mistakes on my opponents part enabled me to tie up his Kingside and then come down with the biscuit move. (This game will be printed in a future issue of NWC). So I then had 4 points out of 5, which is a pretty good score. That night the rounds of noisy Siamese continued into the early hours of morning, causing some of the campus football players to get mad at us. The next day came round 6 and my opponent was Matthew Clark, I came out of the opening with a marked advantage and then went into the middlegame with 2 pieces for a rook, whereupon I came up with a brilliant combinatiion to win two pawns, having analyzed down to where I sac a Knight for two pawns and then forking off his rooks, I proceded with my plans, my opponent obliged by playing all the moves I figured and it came to the forking move, at this point I went over to Chuck Johnson and told him I was 2 pawns up he went over and took a look at the game and said you me you're the exchange down.
I looked and saw that my opponent had played RxP and said to myself, obviously Chuck does not see that I can recapture. So I went back to the board and was just about to play RxR when it dawned on me that I would get mated nor could I play BxR, then I would still get mated. Asargh, SUPERFISH had come to his rescue. I ve been CHEAPOED!! So now I had 4 out of 6 points, which was much more believable. Round 7 found me paired with Miloslav Nekvasil from Washington D.C.. Soon after the game was started, Dr. Dubeck announced that President Nixon would make his resignation speech at 8:00 that night, Milo and I agreed to stop the game so we could listen to the speech. Then Mike Mulford swam in, he had left the Friday after I did and had just now made it to the East coast. We had a short reunion

That night no Siamese contest were held, only the poker player were making noise in the hall keeping the precious football awake. Everbody else was resting for the final round, where the moneywinners would be decided. I was a ½ point behind the leader for Class C money and there were 3 others tied with me. I needed a win to take the money, a draw might end up in a 4 way split but by the way I played the game you would have never know that. So here once again "just for the laughs" is the game.

Alburquerque, New Mexico, won the tournament with 73 points, the favorite of the tourn-ament, Michael Rohde, ended up with 6 points. The players from Washington, D Leo Stefurak had 51 points, Yasser Seirawan had 61 points and won 80 dollars for a tie with Aplace, Chuck Johnson had 5 points and Duane J. alias Superfish ended up with 51 points and the above mention prize. This tournament was sort of a anniversary for Superfish have started his career at the 1971 U.S. Junior Open in Portland. I caught the bus out of Lancaster with Mike Mulford and headed to New York City, the hole of all holes. On the way we tried to educate a couple of guys from New York on Western philssophy, such as whether or not to capture a pawn horizontally or capture it vertically one move sooner, also to sactifice all your pieces for your opponents pawns and be a potential 8 queens up, also to switch your King Knight and Queen night around for defensive purposes. We even tried to teach them Western chess language, but had only limited success; finally we came to the conclusion that the east is very backwards when it comes to chess culture. A few hours later we arrived in New York and then planned our schedule from there. (End of part one.)
Don't miss the next issue of Northwest Chess (End of part one.) when the exciting story of Superfish swims Thank God. to the East is concluded.

Temp Treasurer Comments: The Capital accounts of NWC & WCF were spilt up several years ago in a manner that may or may not have been correct. Income and Expenses have been kept seprately ever since. You will note NWC Capital dropped about $200.00 in a year. This is a little deceserving in that during August 1974 not all the money received was transfered from Yakima to Auburn for several reasons. $363.00 was deposited 9/4/74. I felt it best to not show these amount on the above reports, which may or may not be the best decision. I plan to supply another report end of September and again end of October than may well show a much better position. One big item is that I have not taken the time yet to find out how many issues of NWC we owe into the future, Steve Thomas called that unearned revenue in his July NWC issue report. I agree with Steve on NWC beening financially sound if we continue the program that putting out NWC each month is the major function of WCF/NWC. That is where our major expense of funds goes and time and efforts of many of the officers.

OREGON CHESS NEWS

The Oregon Chess Tederation held their annual meeting on September 1st, in Portland. The following officers were elected for 1974-1975: resident: Clay Kelleher; Vice-Fres: Ken Pitzgerald; Secretary-Treasurer: Harry Glidden

This is the start of a new idea for the Oregon Chess Yews. Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their chess editor. As of today (Sun. morn) no material has been received with one exception, the Eugene Club Lalder. Now the new idea is to start sending (in addition to the regular news) readers games, if the games are without notes then this writer will gladly annotate all games so submitted and if space does not permit complete publication you will receive a personal reply. In other words a lesson by mail. Do it!

ATTENTION ALL OREGOM CHESS CLUBS....

Send to your editor the current club address and the day and time of your meetings. Also the names and addresses of the respective club officers. Send right away as their will be an annual listing for December issue of MWC.

AMMENITON ALL TOURNAMENT ORGANIZERS

As of now , this moment, bids for the 1975 Oregon Open are open and must be received no later than December 1, 1974.

ATTEMTION ALL CHESSPLAYERS

Your newly elected veep wishes to thank you al for your support and we look forward to a great chessyear for Oregon chess and allchessplayers. It is an honor to be working with Clay Kelleher and Harry Glidden. Also if their is any particular style of annotating, for example, this month's issue has the older style of chess writing. Which styles of writing does the membership want? Remember this is your column and this writer is dedicated to that end.

ATTENTION ALL

This writer is pro "algebraic" and con "DESC-RTPTIVE" Mow wait and do not allow a mistake. All material that is received wil be as it is, that is, algebraic will be answered in algebraic and descriptive within descriptive. The reason for this preference (algebraic) is easier to type annotations with alg. OK? So apoligies if any are offended this is asimple reason. Thank you, please no arguments.

ALGEBRAIC

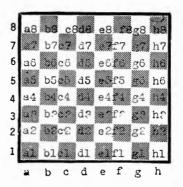

The ranks (horizontals) are numbered from 1 to 8, starting from the rank nearest White. The files (verticals) are lettered from a to h, starting at White's left (the QR file is the a file in algebraic). The inter-sections of the ranks and files give the individual squares their names. captures are indicated either by

": " or "x" and check is shown by "+".

Pawn captures are given by naming only the two files involved.

SALEM OREGON CHESS CLUB

MEETS TUESDAYS 7pm to 12pm SUNDAYS 1pm to 6pm

SITE: Red Cross Bldg., 13th & Hoyt Salem, Oregon

- (a) Better is 7...Q-N3 or 7... B-QB4 8 N-N3 B-QN5 9 B-N2 0-0 (9... p-Q5 10 p-QR?) 10 0-0 B-K94 11 PXP PXP 12 B-N5 BXN 12 PXB QN-Q2 14 N-Q4 B-N2 15 Q-N3 N-N2-The position soon resembles a Tarrasch Defense.
- (b) This move is in the spirit of the Tarrasch Defense.
- (c) Best. Controlling K5 square. (d) White has a good plan. Restrict the double isolani and begin an attack on the black squares in front of the pawns.
- (e) Of course not 1?...QxN 14. NxP wins. (f) Beginning the Blockade of QB5 square and
- preventing14... P-QR4 because of 15 N-N6. (g) Aiming for counter-play against the KP.
- (h) Continuing the Blockading strategy.(i) Frees the queen from a defensive task.
- (j) The QMPawn plays an important role in the attack on the center i.e., a later P-QM5. See note to move #22.
- (k) Preparing to play P-KR4-R5 with the idea of exchanging pawns and then MXMP as the KBpawn cannot defend both K2 and KN2.
- (1) Not allowing Black the option of 22 N-B5 BXN and if 22... P-KR4 22 MXN.
- (m) A mistake. Black has blocked the QB and the threat of 2?...P-KB5 is easily stopped.
- (n) Another Blockading move but now the diagonal Kl to KR4 is weakened and the Black queen moves instantly to the K-side.
- (o) Defending KB4, clearing the K2 square to enable the White queen to defend the King and attacking 24 scuare. And also permitting the following combination as white had foreseen the strength of 28 Q-31: Both players were now in time trouble as each had to make fifteen moves in ten minutes or less.
- (p) Black attempts to destroy the blockade by the Knight sacrifice and the invasion of the rooks along the K-file.
- (h) Combining defense and attack (threat: 29 BxPch), and later (Pl M-B4 QxM? P2 BxPch).
- (r) Fianchettoing the Knight and winning the struggle for the central squares as ?2... R/6-K2 22 P-N5 vindicates White's overall game plan.
- (s) After 36...K-N2 27 R-K1 (the idea of fianchettoing the knight controlling the Kl square and KB4 square) 27...Q-Ml 28 VXPch K-R2 29 RXR QXR 40 M-K6 with the idea of 41 Q-31-34ch Mate, Rook, etc..
- (t) Only move. (u) Clearance and connecting the bishop and
- queen and see move #40. (v) If 28...Q-B3ch 29 M-Q5ch K-N1 40 B-N5 spearing a rook as Fischer would say. The move threatens to win the knight by 29... R-KB6 as Black is under the illusion that the White rook cannot leave the first rank due to the threat of R-QR8 overlooking that 41 RxQ is with check.

 (W) The rook retreats as ?9...QxR (?9... K-K2)
- 40 N-Q5ch) leads to mate 40 N-N6ch and 41 Q-B7 Mate.
- (x) At this point master Massana picked up the Black King and gently but firmly placed him on the opposite side of the board to signify resignation and immediately left the tournament room.

The Eugene Hotel was the site of the third annual Emerald Empire Open. Although the turnout of 56 players was not as great as that for the other major tournaments held in Eugene this year, it was sufficient to cover all expenses and that's all that is really needed to make the tourney successful from an organizer's point of view and make the organizer likely to return. The Oregon Chess Club wants to thank the Eugene area players for their continuing support and encouragement. Eugene tournaments are always enjoyable to direct because of the attitude of the players. Gary Pobanz deserves a special thanks for his help with advance publicity. Tournament Director Lewis Richardson wishes to thank Carl Haessler and Gerard Moshofsky for their assistance with registration (even if a spider did get into the works somehow). Carl also acted as assistant T.D. to fufill part of his requirements for USCF TD. Hope you pass your test, Carl There was a lot of really good chess played at the content of the content of the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the content of the carl and the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl there was a lot of really good chess played at the carl the car

There was a lot of really good chess played at this tourney, with outstanding performances turned in by Wayne "Pat of House of Chess" Maloney and Brad Anderson. Dennis Waterman was in good form and played strong chess; unfortunately for Dennis, James Bricher was having a great weekend and held Dennis to a draw. Robert Pierce and his winning form were most welcome and we hope we'll see them again in the Northwest. This event was jointly sponsored by the Oregon Chess Club and Oregon Chess Federation.

1975 OREGON OPEN

The Oregon Chess Club is trying to put together a bid for the 1975 Oregon Open. We would like to keep the prize fund at the level of this year's tournament ($1500) and in order to do this, need some financial backing. It you are seriously interested in backing a portion of the tournament (and sharing in any profits thereof) please contact Lewis Richardson, Treasurer, Oregon Chess Club, 1136 - 14th Street, Astoria, Oregon 97103 for further details.

(A little clearer thinking and research after I got home made me realize that white had definitely played the most correct move here! Congratulations. Dave, you had me on the downhill run from here on, even if I had played better than I did!) What do I do now? 4. ..., NXP; 5. P-K4! and White will have complete control of the center. If only White had his Knight on QB3!? Oh well, he doesn't, so what can I do? I want to prevent P-K4, so why don't I try QXP ?

5. N-QB3!

There's that Knight! And with gain of tempo! Oh my, this poor Queen - what shall I do with her? If I play Q-Q1, White can still play P-K4 and have complete control of the center, and a beautiful development. Let's see - if I play 2-QR4, White's QN will be pinned and an immediate P-K4 will not be possible for him. (Notice how preventing White's P-K4 had become an obsession with me by this time! True, Black should try to prevent white from dominating the center - but, not this way!)

5. ..., Q-QR4

6. B-Q2

What do I do now?? Can't stop P-K4 anymore.

Seems to me I can recall that a thematic move for Black in Queen-Pawn games is to attack white's center with ..., P-QB4. Okay, if it's thematic, let's do it!???

6. ... P-QB4

7. N-Q5!

Oh! Oh! My Queen is attacked! Also, White threatens to double my pawns with NXN on the next move. (Would you believe that by this time I was concentrating so much on the center, that I failed to look elsewhere?) Well, I don't want doubled pawns and cor and and white king to penetrate and so resigns in a few more moves

(1) Preventing N-06 as white's Q pawn

would drop after BXN

(2) Black allows the

- somebody told me that's a disadvantage in the endgame! (First, one must survive into the endgame!) I could only cover my Knight with a piece, I could prevent doubled pawns. Let's see, White is attacking my Queen with his Bishop, so I must move my Queen before I lose it! Move my Queen, Guard my Knight.
Move my Queen, Guard my Knight? Move my Queen, Guard my Knight!

Q-R3??? 7. ..

8. N-B7ch!!

And that Knight hit the board with such a thunderous force that I almost fell out of my chair!

8. ..., What else?

9. NXQ ИХИ

(I'm not noted for resigning prematurely.) Twice during this tournament, prior to this game, I had a lost game coming out of the opening and, due to errors by my opponents, I ended up with a win in one and a draw in the other. Of course, I wasn't nearly this far behind in those other two games! By now my mind was so blurred and fuzzy from shock and surprise that I didn't see that I was about to be run over until it was too late!

10. PXP! NXP??

11. B-R5 dbl.ch., Resigns
At least White didn't have a chance to play P-K4, and I didn't end up with doubled pawns in the endgame! ??! Anyone out there like to play pinochle?

NEW MATES

LLUSTRATED!

by Anonymous Inmates of the Caissa Mental Hospital

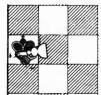

Narrated by Warden Norville W. Corn, Ph.D.

As part of the rehabilitation program of our Institute, chess has proved to be a very enlightening phase of recreation. To avoid frustrating our patients, certain rules of the game have been relaxed, namely that of mate.

The results have been most interesting!

To save space, only partial diagrams are shown.

TORPEDO MATE used by Adolph von D., while playing speed when his opponent fails to parry check. Adolph was a WWII U-boat captain who went mad circling his own sonar reflection for 2½ months!

GAY-LIB MATE used by Sidney A. Although restricted to playing only with female therapists, Sidbaby still loves to recreate those good old days in the parks.

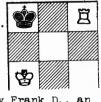

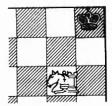

suffered by Vladimir V. This poor guy is so paranoid about being attacked & losing that he steals pleces off other's boards to provide a full-proof line of defence, but always to no avail. So he then removes his king (from Unfortunately, al) and sticks it in his pocket. Vlad's opponent is a pyromaniac who sets his pants on fire and Vlad's king goes up in ashes anyway!

BIBLE MATE used by Theodocious I. who recalls little King David clobbering Big Goliath with his rock (er...rook). Theo also changes water into wine for his friend, Frank D.

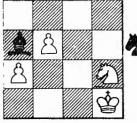

BLOB MATE used by Frank D., an alcoholic. Plagued by poor spacial perception, Frank found it comforting to push various pieces onto the same square For months, no one (N, B&R). could figure out where he was getting his spirits.

NAM MATE (non mate) fashioned by Yan Yong L. His king which stood on al escapes through a Yan was an expert trap door. on escape tunnels during the Viet Nam War but developed elaustrophobia after several cave-ins. NWC OCT PAGE 521

SCHIZO MATE used by Noir-Blanc B. Since his split personality allows him to play both sides of a game with his special set, his new mate permits both sides to win! The two stay quite contented!

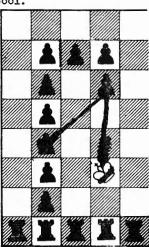

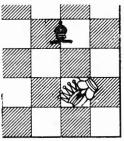

CAPONE MATE, the force-ful favorite of Bugs R. The most notorious and uncreative breaker of rules, Bugs claims his displaced knight is legal; he threatens objectors by tying hunks of concrete to their shoes and taking them for a walk along the hospital's swimming pool.

HANGING MATE employed by Joe O. (Allas Judge Roy) Using carefully tied string on the demo board Joe brings back the fun of the scaffold of the Old West days. He occasionally reads in Chess Life & Review of "hanging knights" etc. but is perplexed why they don't use his new mate in their magazine; after all, hung pieces aren't as dead as a hung king!

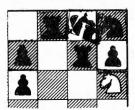

LOVE MATE frequently used by Romeo W. with female therapists. A timid and introverted young man, Romeo is encouraged to use this mate to help him develop a balanced personality. However, his rather erotic manner of displaying this mate has a tendency to disturb spectators, as evidenced by a badly shaken plous black bishop who doesn't know which square to stand on.

CRACK MATE used by Mario N. Tortured by a severely bad temper, Mario beats his king into bits after usually falling for a cheapo. He destroys an average of eleven sets per WARNING: for sanity sake, practical players are urged not to use the above mates in a tournament. You may end up in our hospital!

THE MOVE PKR4

DAVID C. TAYLOR

PKR4 is generally considered an attacking move when it is played in the opening. The move is usually played (after Black's ...PKN3) so as to threaten PR5 and open the KR-file to a quick King-side attack. The move PKR4 can be good or bad according to the merits of the particular position. In the following three games this move played an important part in the opening and consequently in the outcome of the games.

61-CC-X WHITE: William A. Allen BLACK:
David C. Taylor GRUENFELD DEFENSE 1 PQ4 NKB3 2
PQB4 PKN3 3 NQB3 PQ4 4 NB3 BN2 5 BN5 NK5 6 PKR4
Presumably, White intends to follow 6...NxB with 7 PxN. However in an opening, such as a Gruenfeld where Black is hitting hard at the center, such a move amounts to a serious loss of time. Play will be in the center; not the King-side. 6...PQB4! Black is happy to get another "shot" at the center! 7 NxP No other move is better. 7...NQB3 Not so much to protect the KP as to increase the threats against the center. 8 BQ2 If 8 PK3 QR4+ is strong.
8...NxQP 9 BB3 If 9 PK3 NxN+ 9...NxB 10 N5xN
QR4 11 NQ2 Again, if 11 PK3? NxN+ 11...BN5!

16 White resigns! A most sophisticated resignation. He sees the followup. An example line would be: 16 PxN QN6+ 17 KB BxN 18 PxB BxB+ 19 KxB QxNP+ 20 KQ3 KRQ+ etc.

In a previous game a year before, Mr Tennant game up with an innovation in one of the main lines of the Smith-Morra. That game went: 6 BQB4 BN2 7 00 NB3 8 PK5 NKN5 9 BxP+ KxB 10 NKN5+ KNI The new move. tions. (Fortunately for the Smith-Morra, White has other good 7th moves in this line.) 6...BN2 If 6...NB3 7 PR5 NXP 8 RXN PXR 9 NKN5 with dangerous threats. However my home analysis indicates that 6...PKR4! is the correct answer, transposing into more normal lines where the extra moves on each side actually favor Black's defense. For instance Black would later be able to play ...BKN5 unmolested. 7 PR5 PQ3 8 BQB4 QR4 The book gives 8...BK3 9 NQ5 PXP 10 NN5 White advantage. 9 QN3 PK3 10 BB4 QN5 11 000! Played solely to shake up my opponent and get him out of the usual lines. Another psychological gambit!? 5...PKR4 After some thought. 6 NKB3 BR3?!? He plans to trade off this Bishop and make his other Bishop "good" by placing the center pawns on the white squares. However the whole idea is slow and leaves weaknesses on the black squares. 7 00 PK4 8 NB3 PQ3 9 NQ5 BN5 10 PB3 It now becomes apparent to Black that White did not intend to initiate the trade of Bishops. 10...BxB 11 QxB QQ2? A SENSE OF HISTORY

A Book Review by S.M.C. Duncan

American Chess Masters from Morphy to Fischer, By Arthur Bisguier and Andrew Soltis. MacMillan Company, New York, 1974, Hardbound, 291 pp. $9.95.

American chessplayers, it seems, have developed a sense of history since Regkjavik. Fischer, after all, touted his victory as an american, as well as personal triumph. This has not been born out, however: the Russians are still supreme in every area, and Fischer is the exception, not the rule. Still, there are those who believe that Reykjavik is only the prelude to a new age of american success. American Chess Masters seems to take this approach to interpreting the history of chess in this country.

Some might immediately question my writing this review at all. In the minds of some narrow elitists, no one under master strength has the right to comment on chess books or question the opinions of grandmasters. They forget that not everyone who reads chess books is a master and that without a wide readership, chess literature whold be prohibitively expensive to produce and procure. The non-masters opinion is not only important, but vital to the authors of chess books. Furthermore, as this book is neither a treatise or a game collection, but instead a work of popular history, I do not feel that my comments should be prohibited.

American Chess Masters is a history of american chess with an emphasis on the great names such as Morphy, Pillsbury, Marshall, Capablanca, Fine, Reshevsky, and Fischer. In each instance, a short biography is followed by a game or games taken as representative of thexplayer in question. Since the emphasis is on the really important american masters, there is little here that cannot be found elsewhere in the way of games, but the included ones are gems. Included are "The Game of the Century" and Dake's fine win over Alekhine at Pasadena, 1932. Unlike Mast other Books, the authors' style is very readable and an attempt is made to tell the story in an interesting fashion. For instance, a game played by Benjamin Franklin is included, and a vivid description of some famous event in the history of American chess usually begins each chapter. There c an be no complaint about either the story told or the telling of it: both are excellent.

What may bear questioning is the interpretation of the development of american chess offered by the authors. The thesis builds, chapter by chapter, and finally receives statement in the last chapter. In America, we are told, there has been an evolution of style. Americans do not constitute a school, and many diverse approaches have been developed by our masters since the days of Morphy. The authors cite Pillsbury's idea of planning, Capa's piece placement, and Fine and Reshevsky's tactical skills as examples of this "developing" style. The authors' admit that this hardly constitutes a "school" but maintain that the age of schools is dead and that there has indeed been a significant addittion to the legacy of Morphy in the years since his death.

I cannot agree to this conclusion; in fact, I think that the opposite is more the case. American players have never been independent stylists if what we mwan by that is innovative. The romantic school held sway in America until the end of the First World War, long after the rest of the world had inculcated the theories of Steinitz and the dogma of Tarrasch. With Capablan-ca and the great masters of the thirties, we find a pronounced classicism of style; America was not to produce a significant hypermodern master until the late fifties in the person of William Lombardy. This was undoubtedly a major factor in the disastrous beating we suffered in the US vs. USSR Radio Match in 1946. In fact, not a single US player has acheived in making a resily innovative contribution to chess since Morphy. American Chess Masters is attempting to introduce an element into it's subject which is not really there: ultimately, our players are memorable for their win-loss records, their tactical abilities and positional intuition, not the pheoretical advancement they afforded the game. The Russians, on the other hand, do constitute a school, because of the innovative quality of Russian play in general, not the superficial similiarity in the styles of Russian masters which clearly does not exist. To find an original (only marginally sound) style in North America today, one must look to Suttles and his followers in the North.

Despite it's defects, however, this attractive volume should be a welcome addition to the library of anyone who enjoys reading about the history of the game and the cultural aspects of the and the cultural aspects of chess as a social activity. Those who enjoy reading about the personalities of famous chess players will also find something of interest in Americam Chess Masters. I must repeat, however, that this is a work of popular non-fiction, not a substantial theoretical work. As if to prove this, it is published in descriptive notation for those of you who are enamoured to that system. Chess players who want something more than interesting reading are advised to look elsewhere, or wait until a paperback edition appears. For the rest of us, who probably buy most of the chessbooks anyway, American Chess Masters may just be the most enjoyable reading in a long time.

1974 USCF MEETINGS -New York City By Russell Miller (taken from reports sent to me by Former USCF President Leroy Dubeck and USCF Director Harold Winston of Chicago who had my proxy)

Richard Fauber, 4537 Brandwine Ct., Carmichael, CA 95608 is new Region VIII USCF-VP. 1975 US Open will probably be held in Lincoln, Nebraska. On membership the report was as of June 30,1974 there were 59,777 members, 1552 affiliates and a total mailing list of 66,465. This is a 1.9% increase from 59,250 members and mailing list of 65,254 there was last year. Col. Edmondson attributes the small increase to Fischers inactivity, the resulting lack of chess publicity in the mass media, the recession and the energy crisis last winter. A substantial number of members who joined during the Fischer boom did not renew their memberships. USCF is responding by a campaign to get more publicity for chess, by starting an advertising campaign to attract more members, and by encouraging development of young masters to build a "stable of stars". Edmondson estimated that the total cost per member of Chess Life and Review and a proportional share of the business office expenses is $12.48 per year at present. If USCF had gone up like consumer price index, the present dues would be $15.75 and for Jrs.

$7.80. A dues increase is a must to keep from going into the red next year. The suggestion from the USCF office was to double the dues but the compromise reached was

 Regular dues effective Jan 1,1975 will be $15.00 per year (with a $3 discount to affiliates)

Junior dues effective Jan. 1,1975 will be $8.00 per year (with a $2 discount to affilitates)

The age limit for Junior rates has been reduced to 19 years of age at date of expiration.

 No new life memberships or life sustaining can be signed up after Dec 31,1974.

Best everyone start right now a sustaining life membership which is $20 per year for 10 years or $200.00 and avoid any rate increase in the future.

On computerization a decision will be made January 1,1975 whether to rent a computer or buy one. When the computerization takes place each member will receive his current rating on his CL&R mailing label each month.

Total number of pages in CL&R has gone up 10% to reach 440 in a year. (NWC will be 396 pages in 1974 if we do 32 page issues in Nov and Dec.) Tournament Life in CL&R takes about 20% of the space with 90 pages a year. Editor Burt Hochberg thought 3 major improvements in the last year were "Readers Showcase", "Back to Basics" and "Editor's Page". Suggestions from members included giving more attention to American Chess and our younger masters, using a greater variety of photographs and reducing the space given to postal chess and to "Here and There". The average rating of USCF members is around 1360. Next Men's Olympiad will be held as a Swiss System event. Proxy distribution as this years meeting was noted in that the number of proxies held by Policy Board members was down from 106 last year to 87 this year. One director questioned if proxies are even to be allowed under the Illinois Nonprofit Corporations law.

The system premiting the state affiliate to designate a list of ordered names to receive any unassigned proxies from the state was passed.

The bylaws revision committee report was defeated in toto. The vote was to vote on the report as a whole and this passed. Then the vote to reject the whole report passed. Harold Winston believes this set a poor precedent and parts of the report should have been discussed and voted upon in parts.

It did pass to change composition of Policy Board to include a President, Vice President, Secretary, Immediate Past President and two Regional Representatives-one from Region I-IV and other from V-VIII. The President will have a second tie breaking vote. Terms will be for 3 years and USCF delegates will vote on all members of the board but the Immediate Past President. No fulltime USCF employee may serve on Policy Board.

USCF Directors will in the future be called USCF Board of Delegates. If a affiliated state does not transmit its ordered list of delegates by the deadline then the 1st

V-P in the region will appoint them.

New list of Delegates will be printed in Feb 75 issue of CL&R.

As of June there were 14 National Certified Tournament Directors, 217 ITD's and 1231 LTD's for a 1462 total. The June and July rating supplements were current within 34 days.

A new "Official Rules of Chess" will be printed soon and will include new pairing rules.

There will be a new "feedback" system tested in the rating system to prevent deflation of established players ratings due to losses to improving players. It will replace the use of bonus points.

In International affairs the members meeting passed a series of advisory resolutions commending the Elo Rating System (as used by FIDE), urging that chess should be above politics (Chess Newslatter has something on this why not subscribe, see Oregon News pages in this issue.), suggesting an increase in US representatives in the Intezonals, selection of all Interzonal players through tournament qualification, urging the use of seconds be reduced or eliminated, suggesting the Policy Board consider withdrawing from FIDE if the situation warrants. Winston points out that the Board of Delegates whould have to pass on that last one.

The subject of giving states authority over tournament scheduling will be assigned to a special committee to report next year. In the mean time out of state organizers are urged to get written permission from the appropriate local organizers before holding tournaments. A motion to list an entry fee to prize ratio in Tournament Life announcements was defeated.

The State Chess Associations Committee gave a report outlining the basic principles they are fomulating including reciprocity in honoring state cards, trying to define state associations. The committe will be enlarged to study role of regions and regional V-P's. From the "Official Notice to State Affiliates Certification of USCF State Delegates" we learn that Washington as of June 30,1974 had 652 USCF members. This must be dropp from the year before becasue Washington gets only 3 delegates this year compared to 4 last year. Oregon has 476 members and gets two delegates. New York is top with 7967, California 7617, Illinois 3717, New Jersey 3278, Mass. 2595, Ohio 2586, Fenn. 3205, Idaho 127, Montana 133, Utah 282.

EASTERN WASHINGTON LEAGUE?

Teddy Garoutte, P.O. Box 733,Ephrata,WA 98823 is trying to setup a league east of the mountains. Yakima CC and Wenatchee have agreed to play as have Ephrata plus Spokane fielding two teams with help from Eastern Wash. State College. Anyone else want to get a team up in your area? How about Walla Walla, Pullman, Tri-Cities? Teddy suggest playing each time twice at home and away with each match to be two games on 5 boards, Northwest Rated. Hope he can make a go of it as I tried several years ago but it never got off the ground. R Miller

MINI-MIGHT CHESS BULLETIN

In addition to putting out the ELITE CHESS BULLETIN memtioned below, James Schroeder puts out MINI-MIGHT CHESS BULLETIN. It is not neat but it has interesting material and views. Vol 2 No. 2 September 74 has a chapter from Jude Acers soon to be published book, THE ROAD about which Schroeder says," I regret to say that I have read a few of the chapters from this (sic) books and it is damn good. Idon't like to read books that are this good, because to be good it has to be 'real' and real life is hell. It is pain and hope and eternal struggle. Another article is Ratings:Obessive Oligarchical and Obtuse by Paul H. Litte.

Schroeder has a funny ask Al column. Vol 2 Number for August 74 has the opinion by Schroeder that United States Chess Federation should hire an intelligent, well educated, person to edit it's magazine". He thinks Hochberg is not. "Famous Last Round Tournament Thrills"by Paul H. Little appears which is to be part of a book. Schroeder says" Ed Edmondson has made the USCF the success it is today ... you must support Ed" Schroeder says "Encyclopedia of Chess Openings""This is another swindle". A subscription to MINI-MIGHT CHESS BULLETIN is $4.00.

Several years ago I sent a few books on chess to the inmates of Arizon State Prison. They had an active chess group and I was soon sending books there regularly. Then, I heard from other Institutions and began sending books, sets, magazines, etc., to Institutions and Individuals all over the country. I try to purchase a subscription to CHESS magazine for each Institution I hear from.

The Cleveland Chess Foundation was Incorporated in Ohio in 1971 as a non-profit organization.

Donations are Tax-Deductible.

As word of the Foundation got around, we began receiving more requests for help, and each request is about the same: They dont have enough sets and boards; they dont have any chess clocks; they have very few books; they dont get any chess magazines; they dont have any score sheets; they dont have any books showing how to start a club and how to organize events. It takes a large amount of money to provide equipment and books for a chess club which has twenty to fifty members, and the persons in penal institutions dont have any money of their own.

The persons we want to help are also trying to help themselves. If you want to play postal chess with a person in prison, write William Couture, Box 43, Norfolk, Mass and he will arrange an opponent, or opponents, for you.

The only asset a prisoner has is time. Let's help him use that time constructively. It has Kenn Fong, of Oakldnd, Cllif,, publishes a Newsletter for penal institutions, and he needs money for printing and pestage. The USA Co-Champion, John Grefe, has given simultaneous exhibitions at prisons, and asks only for his minimal expenses to be paid by us.

For many years Jude Acers has travelled around the country, giving free exhibitions and lectures at Penal Institutions.

Get Involved! It is my opinion that the persons asking for our help are of ususual ability. They only need to be shown the correct method of surviving after they get out of prison. Every week I receive at least one letter from a person who says: You are the first person who ever helped me.

Please inform your friends, chess columnists, chess book publishers, manufacturers of chess sets, etc. of our project. We can use your old chess books and sets.

Every person that donates $7.00 or more will receive the ELITE CHESS BULLETIN, edited by James Schroeder. This contains: All games of the 1952 USA Chess Championship match between Larry Evans and Herman Steiner; an article on Henry Bird; a selection of the best games of Paul Keres which were NOT published in the English edition of his book; an article on François Danican Philidor by Emanuel Lasker; etc. JUDE F. LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Rusty: I miss your unique informational column about the domestic, and world, chess scene, which you used to provide for NW Chess to publish. Your style was lively, personal, and altogether informative, and entertaining. I sincerely hope that perhaps you again will begin to provide NW Chess with your column. Sincerely, John A. Chance

EDITORS REPLY: Thanks for the kind words John. One of my main sources, CHESS EXPRESS appears to have stopped publication. This came airmail from Switzerland but the editor died and it appears that the publication is not to be continued, atleast I have not gotten one for several months. I hope to continue my Russell's Chess Chats column in the future if the new Editor wants it.

RUSSELL'S CHESS CHATS By Russell W. Miller

If you would like the complete telegram that Fischer presented his demands to FIDE Congress in subscribe to CHESS NEWSLETTER, P.O. Box 21225, Dallas, TX 75211 for $3.36 for 6 months an issue every 1st and 15th of the month via first class mail. Fischer wants the prize fund for next title match to be bid in gold. TONY MILES of England is newest International Master for he won World Junior Championship held in Manila. Scores in finals were Miles 7-2, Dieks of Holland, Marjanovic of Yug. and Schneider of Sweden 5½; Kochiev of USSR, Mack of W. Germany and Giardelli of Argentina 4½, Peter Winston of USA 4, Hanan of Columbia and Nieto of Brazil 2. Don't know how Migel Fullbrook did except that he did not make the finals.

Three way tie at California Open in LA area over Labor Day weekend. David Strauss of Riverside won the title on tie-break. His 5½-½ score was equaled by young Larry Christiansen of Riverside and Ronald Gross of Cerritos. Kim Commons the top rated player scored 5-1 to top that score group. 549 players took part in 75th Annual U.S. Open held in New York City. Duane Polich will supply a full report next month on Northwest players. Co-Champions are Vlastimil Hort of Czech and Pal Benko of USA as both scored 10-2. Tied 3-6 were Jan Timman a GM from Holland, Arthur Bisquier, William Lombardy both USA GM's plus Hans Bohm of Holland all scoring 9½-2½, 7th-20 with 9-3 were Samuel Reshevsky, Kim Commons, Larry Christiansen, Tim Taylor, John Peters, John Jacobs, Michael Rohde, Tony Deutsch, Tom Wozney, Milorad Boskovic, Jon Tisdall and Danny Kopec. Ruth Donnelly and Ruth Haring scored 7-5 to tie for Top Woman Trophy. Experts Marc Yoffie and Robert Zweibel scored 9-3 for the Expert prize. Hort beat Benko when Benko left a rook en prise during a severe time pressure. All the above information on US Open came from USCF Publicity sheet No. 7 of 1974.

Amsterdam 1974 was won by Soviet player Tukmakov on tie-break over Ivkov and Jansa when all scored 10-5. William Lombardy scored 6½ to tie for 11-13th places.

Chess Newsletter reports Benko lost to both Hort and Bohm in US Open. Bohm also beat Reshevsky but lost to Hort in last round. There were 6 grandmasters, 7 senior masters, 44 masters and 72 experts. Chess Newsletter says the real reason Petrosian forfeited out his match to Korchnoi was bemause referee would not annull the fifth game as Petrosian requested because of Korchnoi saying loudly to Petrosian after Petrosian accidently hit Korchnoi's leg lightly with his foot during the fifth game, "Don't look for your chances under the table, but on it: ". There was ill will between the two because Petrosian had complained to the referee that Korchnoi kept disturbing him by rocking his leg under the chess table.

The first World Computer Chess Championship was won by who else the USSR. Kaissa Program of USSR won all four games including 3 against the USA programs. Tied for 2-4 were Chess 4.0 of USA, Ribbit of Canada and Chaos of USA all with 3-1. Event was held in

Stockholm August 5-8,1974 and organized by Ben Mittman of USA add David Levy of England, I have all the game scores if someone is interested. The sponsor of the event was IFIP Congress 74. The KAISSA program from USSR was seeded fifth. It was entered by Institute of Control Science, Profosojuznaja 81, Moscow. It took 5 years to develop. The program has 10,000 stored book opening positions. A tree of all possibilities to a depth of 5 half-moves is constructed. After this only forcing moves are considered. The tree is pruned by use of the alpha-beta algorithm and also by anew and individual method which defines the equivalence of moves, and the similarity of positions relative to the set of moves- if a move is bad in one particular position, it is assumed to be bad in a similar position. The method reduces the search both by reducing the number of moves, and also whole sets of variations. Three different evaluation functions are used at different times by the program- for the middle game, the end game and checkmate. It has played some fifty games but has no previous tour-nament experience. Main workers on the program have included V.L. Alazarov, G.M. Adelson-Velsky, A.R. Bitman (a chess master) and M.V. Donskoy. All the above information on the Computor tournament comes to us from the bulletins of the tournament sent to NWC. There is much more, something about each program is given, there were 13 in all. B.T. Batsford Limited of London, England plans to print THE BATSFORD CHESS YEARBOOK annually, with 100 pages of major event crosstables, 100 selected, annotated games, review of year's opening novelties, best problems, review of chess literature, Elo rating list. Association of US Chess Journalists is pushing for Algebraic notation. Newletter No. 4 of 1973/74 reports on the progress of conversion. It covers 79 magazines printed inUSA sometime during 1974. Year 100% Alg. 1-99% Alg 0% Alg 1-100% Alg 1973 15% 29% 56% 44% 1974 48% 45% 55%

There was a drop of 8% in total algebraic plus 11% increase in those which contain any algebraic. More contain algebraic than not this year. Only three chess columns in newspapers currently use Algebraic. There is a saving of 33% claimed in the cost of publication.Hey, I wasn't suppose to print anymore about Algebraic was I. better stop.

LETTERS TO EDITOR:

Dear Russell:

I think NWC is serving its purpose admirably. The most often heard complaint, I suppose, is that there aren't more annotated games, of better quality. Ofcourse, it is up to the membership to produce such games and to submit them. Keep up the good work!

Best Wishes Bill Ballard, Portland, Oregon

EDITORS REPLY:

You are so right Bill in fact I am not a good enough chessplayer to decide what is really good or bad quality so I have been printing most everything that someone will take the trouble to send in especially if it is neatly typed. I have been mostly a cut and paste editor. Two of the three people running for Editor plan to be more than that. I had to create quite a bit this issue to fill out the forty pages but still at that I took it from material at hand, just a matter of putting it in to form to print.

I do plan to keep up the work in the future, don't know how good it will be and it will be up to the new editor to decide if he should print what I submit. But you readers out there I am sure that Dan, Duane or Hal will welcome and very much want anything you care to send in. Russell W. Miller

We're back, bigger and better than last year!! Last year, we guaranteed $1050 in prizes, and had a turnout of 75 players. The recent Oregon Open guaranteed $1500 and drew 142 players. What will happen when $1950 is guaranteed?!! The consensus last year was that the playing site was excellent, except for lighting. This year, we feel the lighting will be much improved, with everything else at least as good as last year!!

Prizes awarded: To be announced (if not present, we mail check)

This prize fund has $1,950 guaranteed! The reason is simple...the tournament i sponsored. Our sponsor would like to see 125 players in the Olympia area for this Tournament, and with this Entry Fee/Prize ratio, you're only hurting yourself if you don't come!! The reason is simple...the tournament is Just ask PETER BIYIASIS ($116.66 last year), JONATHAN BERRY ($116.66), BRUCE HARPER ($116.66), D. LEO STEFURAK ($25), DUANE J. POLICH ($25), and AILEEN DE MOULIN ($50), to name a few, for their reaction to the Capitol City Open! Come to where the money is, 'cause you can't take any of it unless you play in what we want to make THE Chess Tournament in the Pacific Northwest! - THE CAPITOL CITY OPEN!!

SPECIAL NOTE: Only one prize to an entrant; i.e., first in class or first Junior, so that 22 players will cash in this tournament. Prizes will be grouped and divided equally, in the event of tie, as $400 each in case of two-way tie for 1st, etc.

If there are sufficient entries, awards such as "Upset", "Brilliancy," etc. will be added. (The bigger the turnout, the more the prizes.)

Sept. 18, 1974

Dear Editor;

Some IECC news of interest. The Spokane County Closed tournament will be held Dec 27 through 30 1974 and Jan 3 thru 12 1975. It will be an 8 player Round Robin USCF & WCF rated. The top 8 county residents from the Spokane County Open with $3\frac{1}{2}$ or better score qualify for this tournament. If fewer than 8 finish with this cut off score, additional places will be filled by invitation based upon tournament performance durin 1974. The ENTRY FEE is \$12 for all players. The PRIZE FUND will be split as follows. 1st prize \$60 to be placed in Championship prize fund. 2nd prize \$18, 3rd \$12. The IECC will put \$40 in Championship prize fund. Playing site for County Closed to be the club playing place assuming we have found a permanent home after EXPO. All games to be held at same place. RDS scheduled on TUES, FRI. & SUN with adjournaments on SAT.. This is slightly flexible but the tournament must be finished by Jan 12. Time Control: 45/21, 2nd 18/1. Tournament Directors will be George W. Priebe And Edward Rodriguez.

The Spokane County 1975 Championship match will be held Feb 1-25 1975. The match will be USCF & WCF rated. 10 games will be played because the split of the PRIZE Fund will be based upon the number of wins per each participant. Also the Champion will receive IECC membership for 1975 and a trophy!

Sincerely.

TERRY WEKE (Vancouver, British Columbia) suggests: "Could you organize a Northwest Postal Chess Championship for 1975? This could be held every three years."
Yes, we could. But, it would depend on the response. I think it would have to be low fee with trophy and prestige awards only. Let's try with $3 entry, two rounds, 5-player sections in round one, one game with each opponent, section winners only advance into final round robin section to determine Northwest Champion.

For a Foursome, send $1. Your name will be placed on a list which is maintained for your class. When four names accumulate, an assignment sheet is prepared and mailed out to all the players. No duplication of opponents in the same calendar year, unless specifically asked for by both persons.

For a Match, you must find your own opponent. However, he must be an established player who is already on the rating list. Then, one of you sends in $1 and states the number of games in the match (we recommend 4-6). The assigned match number will usually appear in the next issue of NWC. Note that we have recently had to cancel several matches because either the full fee was not paid by one of the players or the correct name/address of one of the players was never reported. And we will not spend money chasing after money when the amount is so small. The fees are used mainly to cover administrative and postage costs. The new procedure is intended to correct the situation.

Effective immediately, all unfinished 1972 games, matches and sections are closed out. The warning for this was published in Feb 74 NWC, page 63. We lost two masters this month because their only "activity" was in 1972 events.

Do not think that you can merely write in and claim forfeiture because your opponent is slow or late. The most you can do is report the facts. He has rights, too, and must be given a chance to reply. If his other opponents are making a similar complaint, a forfeiture is usually promptly awarded based on "multiple complaints." But if you are the only one to register a complaint, we make an inquiry first, And, in every case, we prefer resumption of play to forfeiture. After all, that's the purpose of this activity! SURELY, NO ONE IS PLAYING JUST FOR PRESTIGE AND RATING POINTS!?

PUGET SOUND LEAGUE

Robert A. Karch, League Director

Teams entered as of September 14th:

CHAMPIONSHIP DIVISION
Auburn-Kent TERRY GRANT, Captain

RESERVE DIVISION Auburn-Kent SEAN CAIN, Captain

By the time you read this, there will of course have been additional teams, and the first match pairings will have been set up for Sunday, October 13th at 1 PM.

Last season's Championship had 7 teams, and it was a good fight right down to the play-off match (May 74 NWC, page 160). Defending Champions are THE TACOMA CHESS CLUB; runner-up THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Word is out that neither will win this season, according to GARY D. AULT, Captain of the yet-to-be registered Southend Chess Team. His line-up is: JOHN D. WALKER, RANDY DEAN, YASSER SEIRAWAN, D. LEO STEFURAK, and DAVID N. WILLIAMS - 3 Masters and 2 Experts! Master WALKER won an international tournament in Italy this past summer. It might be worth it to form a team just to be able to meet and play this SUPERSTAR TEAM OF THE NORTH-WEST!

OLYMPIA CHESS CLUB easily dominated the small Reserve Divison last season (Apr 74 NWC, page 120). Only 4 active teams. We are hoping that Boeing will enter again and add significantly to the competitive spirit.

From now until the end of the season, I will try to get a PSL report into NWC every month.
